J. Edgar Hoover

Dear Mr. Jacobson:

Your letter of October 4, 1963, has been received.

I appreciate your interest in writing and furnishing me with the enclosed newspaper articles. You may be interested in knowing that it is not my wish to be a candidate for political office. My desire is to remain in my present capacity as long as I can be of service to our Nation.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

NOTE: No record of correspondent in Bufiles. Likewise, there is no identifiable information concerning Rev. Wesley Brice or Richard MacCoon. No derogatory information in Bufiles concerning Ralph R. Fryberger, with whom we have had cordial but limited correspondence. I. Jacobson is not identifiable on the basis of information contained in the newspaper articles.

[REDACTED] The Protect American Rights Committee was organized in the Los Angeles locale to champion the Director as a presidential candidate in the national elections of 1964. It has been described as a private body of citizens who are concerned over the fact that political machines appear to be choosing our candidates rather than the American people. Co-Chairman of the group is one Gene Bradley who has disclosed plans for a "giant mail" campaign.

'J. E. Hoover For President' Group Meets

A Los Angeles man led a "J. Edgar Hoover for President" meeting here last night before 50 persons in the Vasa Club, 3091 El Cajon Blvd.

Richard MacCoon, a marketing representative for an auto parts firm, was the principal speaker at the meeting. He said he was head of the movement to draft Hoover.

MacCoon, who said he was a member of the John Birch Society in Los Angeles, said Hoover was a man who would lead the country "under the rules of God and not under the rules of man."

He expressed concern that a strong bid by Hoover would split the nation's conservative elements.

Ralph Fryberger, a teacher in National City, introduced MacCoon. Fryberger said he was the San Diego representative for the "Protect American Rights Committee" — the name given the Hoover movement.

FBI's Hoover Gets Backing For President

Need to Clean Up Government Cited At Meeting Here

"When you want to clean house in government call a policeman, and the one for the job is J. Edgar Hoover."

That was the message brought to San Diego last night by a Los Angeles group intent on drafting Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, as a candidate for president of the United States.

Leaders Speak

Richard MacCoon and the Rev. Wesley Brice, both of Los Angeles, cochairmen of the Protect American Rights Committee of North Hollywood, spoke at the public meeting in the Vasa Club, 3091 El Cajon Blvd.

MacCoon, a salesman, said the committee was organized three weeks ago at a meeting in Van Nuys. Some 150 persons attended that meeting and $87 was collected, he said.

$300 in Contributions
Since then, MacCoon said, contributions received through the mail total more than $300. The committee's slogans are "A Buck for Hoover" and "I'm Bucking for Good Government."

"The fact that Mr. Hoover has not recognized our support or declared his candidacy has not put a damper on our drive," MacCoon said. "On the contrary, by remaining silent he is on almost the same ground with other possible candidates," he added.

Teacher Adds Support

Ralph F. Fryberger, 2627 Covington Road, a sixth grade teacher at El Toyon Elementary School, National City, attended the Van Nuys meeting and helped to organize last night's gathering.

Fryberger described Hoover as a man who knows the enemy. "I believe the Communist movement in America would fall flat if Hoover became president," he said.

Dear Sir:

Not more than the fund to be paid to the designated beneficiary of any Special Agent of the FBI who has previously contributed to the fund and who dies from any cause except self-destruction while employed as a Special Agent, I am forwarding herewith (by Check - Money Order) the sum of $10, payable to S.A.I.F., to be included in said fund. Payment will be made to the beneficiary after the Agent has been a member of the fund for a continuous period of two years. It is understood and agreed that the sum tendered herewith is a voluntary, gratuitous contribution to said fund which I understand is to be administered in the following manner.

The Bureau of the FBI will appoint a committee which shall consider all matters pertaining to the acquisition, safe keeping and expenditure of said fund, which committee will recommend appropriate action to the Director in pertinent matters. The Assistant Director of the Administrative Division of the FBI shall receive all contributions and account for same to the Director. Upon the death of any Special Agent who is a member of said fund the appointed committee will consider the case and submit a recommendation to the Director as to its conclusions. Appropriate instructions will then be issued to the Assistant Director of the Administrative Division, directing him to pay to the designated beneficiary the sum of $10,000. The liability of the fund shall not under any circumstances exceed the amount of monies in the fund at the time any liability shall occur.

Chris Brady, Administrative Assistant to Congressman Carl Elliott (D. - Alabama), who is very friendly, has talked to my office twice within the past two days re Congressman Elliott proposing legislation for the Director. Mr. Brady said the Congressman has the greatest respect for Mr. Hoover and is concerned that the Director just might be forced to retire unless the mandatory provision in the Civil Service regulation is waived by the President. To absolutely preclude the possibility the Director might be forced to retire, it is Congressman Elliott's desire to introduce a bill in Congress removing Mr. Hoover from the Civil Service requirement calling for mandatory retirement at age 70. Before introducing this bill, however, said Mr. Brady, it is Congressman Elliott's desire that Mr. Hoover let him confidentially know how he feels about such a maneuver. If Mr. Hoover objects, of course, no such bill would be introduced. Mr. Brady did think it would pass the Congress without any difficulty.

RECOMMENDATION:

That I informally tell Congressman Elliott the Director deeply appreciates his interest, however, at this time such legislation might give rise to unwarranted speculation and gossip. He will be told the Director has no intentions of retiring; additionally that his kind interest will be kept in mind.

Assistant Director James H. Gale telephoned your office from New York yesterday and advised that Colonel Lyle Brookhaver had been in contact with him. Brookhaver is the public relations advisor to Mrs. Mary C. Roebling of West Collingwood, New Jersey, who is very prominent in banking affairs. Brookhaver advised that Mrs. Roebling had been approached to head a citizens' committee for the purpose of preserving the Director's birthplace in Washington. She had stated that she would only consider this if it had the complete approval and endorsement of the Director. Brookhaver also advised that Robert Wolfe of the "Columbus Dispatch" was connected with this committee in some way. Editor Tom Bryan of the "Capitol Hill Spectator" advised you also of the selections of Roebling and Wolfe on 1/31/63.

We have had very close contacts with Wolfe. It is noted that according to Bufiles, Mrs. Roebling [REDACTED]. She has, however, publicly praised the Bureau and sent the Director a letter of congratulations on his anniversary as Director of the FBI in 1962.

CURRENT PUBLICITY REGARDING EFFORTS TO PRESERVE THE DIRECTOR'S BIRTHPLACE

The "Capitol Hill Spectator," self-described as a community newspaper which is published in Washington, has recently been publishing articles asserting that Capitol Hill citizens have been attempting to form a committee to preserve the Director's birthplace as a national monument and museum. The newspaper has indicated its full support of this plan and in its issue of 12/21/62, claimed that various groups representing more than 12 million Americans, had expressed interest in it. In its latest issue, copy attached, there is set forth another article on this matter which gives a complete rundown of the Director's many achievements over years. The article also features his picture, as well as a picture of the Justice Building.

Jones to DeLoach Memo
RE: Proposal that a Citizens' Committee
Be Formed For Purpose of Preserving
Director's Birthplace

Bufiles contain no information concerning this newspaper and no information identifiable with its Editor, Thomas Bryan. Bryan has contacted you on a number of occasions regarding this matter. He has been emphatically told that we cannot enter into this matter and that it should be played down. He, however, senses a very popular campaign potential and has plowed ahead.

OTHER INFORMATION:

The only other information we have concerning this matter regards the efforts of James A. Grooms, who, on 5/12/60, wrote to the Trinity Methodist Church in Washington stating that there was a plan to merge several Methodist Churches in the city into one church where the Trinity Methodist Church stood at that time at 413 Seward Square. This address was the birthplace and the home for several years of the Director. Grooms felt that any future building plans should include some tribute, plaque, or the actual preservation of the Director's home as a means of paying tribute to a great American. On 5/17/60, the Director wrote to Grooms stating that he appreciated his sentiments, but also indicated that he did not feel this plan should be encouraged in any way.

At that time, Grooms was associated with the [REDACTED] [REDACTED] had been a former Bureau clerical employee, having entered on duty 12-1-41 on military leave on 4/19/46.

RECOMMENDATION:

That we take steps to advise Mrs. Roebling and Editor Bryan that while the Director appreciates the sentiment behind this movement, it would not be possible for him to take part in it in any way and that it would be appreciated if any further efforts in this regard be discouraged.

DRIVE TO HONOR J.

EDGAR HOOVER

Spurred by the interest of several local citizen groups and various national organizations, the drive to preserve the birthplace of J. Edgar Hoover as a national monument and museum has gained considerable momentum and steps are being taken to formalize a committee for definite action. The reaction of the public to preserve the birth place of this outstanding American has been overwhelmingly favorable and it is believed that there will be little time lost in preparing both private and public plans for the preservation of this asset to the community.

The long service of J. Edgar Hoover in the interests of his country is apparently quite deeply appreciated by his fellow Americans and they are anxious to retain this historic building as a small tribute for the selfless and dedicated efforts he has made for his country.

John Edgar Hoover was born January 1, 1895, in the District of Columbia.

He was educated in the public schools of the District of Columbia and received Bachelor of Laws and Master of Laws degrees from the George Washington University. He holds honorary degrees from the George Washington University, Pennsylvania Military College, New York University, Kean College, Western College, Oklahoma Baptist University, Georgetown University, University of the South, University of Notre Dame, St. John's University Law School, Rutgers University, University of Arkansas, Holy Cross College, Seton Hall College, Marquette University, Pace College and Morris Harvey College.

Mr. Hoover entered the Department of Justice in 1917, and in 1919 he was appointed Special Assistant to the Attorney General. From 1921 until 1924 he served as Assistant Director, Bureau of Investigation and in May 1924, he was named Director. He has been admitted to practice law before the bar of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, the United States Court of Claims and the United States Supreme Court. Mr. Hoover is a Mason, both Royal Arch and Scottish Rite, 33o, and a Shriner. He is a member of Kappa Alpha Fraternity; Omicron Delta Kappa; Delta Theta Phi; Alpha Phi Omega; and Zeta Sigma Pi. He is a member of many national and statewide law enforcement associations; a trustee of The George Washington University; member, Board of Directors, Boys' Clubs of America; member, National Court of Honor, and honorary member, National Council, Boy Scouts of America; Active Member, Grand Council, Order of DeMolay. He is a member of the Columbia Country Club, Washington, D.C.

On 3-8-46, Mr. Hoover was presented the Medal of Merit by the President of the United States. On 11-13-54, he was awarded the Cardinal Gibbons Medal by the National Alumni Association of The Catholic University of America for outstanding service to his country. On 5-27-55, President Eisenhower presented Mr. Hoover the National Security Medal for his outstanding service in the field of intelligence relating to National Security. On 1-27-56, President Eisenhower presented Mr. Hoover the President's Award for Distinguished Federal Civilian Service. On 4-28-58, he received the U.S. Chamber of Commerce "Great Living Americans" award. On 5-5-58, he received the Freedoms Foundation's "George Washington Honor medal" for his speech, "The American Ideal." On 6-16-59, he was presented the "American Citizenship" award by the Junior Order United American Mechanics. On 8-4-61, the U.S. Senate passed a resolution commending Mr. Hoover upon his 37 years of "distinguished service to the United States" as Director of the FBI. On 12-7-61, Mr. Hoover received the Mutual of Omaha Criss Award for "his outstanding contribution to the personal security and safety of the American public." On 2-22-62, he received the Freedoms Foundation's "George Washington Honor Medal" for the second time.

Memorandum

To: Mr. Mohr

DATE: February 7, 1963

FROM C. D. DeLoach

SUBJECT: / PRESERVATION OF THE DIRECTOR'S BIRTH PLACE
CAPITOL HILL

Mary Robinson, a member of the Board of Governors, American Stock Exchange, and President, Trenton Trust Company, Trenton, New Jersey, called me from New York 2-6-63. She was distressed over the premature publicity that she was to be Chairman of the drive for the preservation of the Director's birth place.

Mrs. Roebeling explained that she, of course, would be delighted to do anything which would honor the Director. She specifically stated, however, that upon being approached by Tom Bryan, Editor, Capitol Hill Spectator, in connection with this matter, she had told Bryan that although she would be glad to accept the Chairmanship of this campaign at the same time she would not make any moves in this connection until she knew that the Director approved of her assuming such a Chairmanship and of the campaign as a whole. Mrs. Roebeling stated when she saw the publicity naming her as Chairman of the campaign she became very disturbed and personally called Bryan to "dress him down" regarding this matter.

Ms. Flooding stated the purpose of her call on 2-6-63 was to apologize for any embarrassment this matter might have caused the Director and indicate that she and her relatives would want to do anything without his approval.

I told Mrs. Roebling that the Director would certainly understand the circumstances and that, as a matter of fact, while the Director could not come right out and say he was totally against such a campaign, at the same time the Director felt the campaign should be discouraged. I told Mrs. Roebling that the same message had been given to Editor Bryan and that he was dropping the campaign, however, she might still see considerable publicity in this regard inasmuch as a number of people on Capitol Hill were definitely behind the campaign. She stated she understood the situation and would take no action whatsoever.

In talking with Bryan the same date, he indicated that the campaign would be quietly dropped.

With further respect to Mrs. Roebling, she asked that I inform the Director that she thus far has bought 75 copies of his book, "A Study of Communism," to give to friends. While talking with her I mentioned that in the event we could be of assistance in getting her any future orders handled with dispatch she should let us know. She expressed appreciation and asked that she have 50 books sent to her immediately. She stated that ~~REDACTED~~ of the 50 she would place an order for another 100 books.

~~For reco. purposes.~~

Dear Sir:

For inclusion in the fund to be paid to the designated beneficiary of any Special Agent of the FBI who has previously contributed to this fund and who dies from any cause except self-destruction while employed as a Special Agent, I am forwarding herewith (by Check - Money Order) the sum of $10, payable to the Assistant Director, Administrative Division, FBI, to be included in said fund. Payment will be made for death by self-destruction after the Agent has been a member of the fund for a continuous period of two years. It is understood and agreed that the sum tendered herewith is a voluntary, gratuitous contribution to said fund which I understand is to be administered in the following manner.

The Director of the FBI will appoint a committee which shall consider all matters pertaining to the acquisition, safe keeping and expending of said fund, which committee will recommend appropriate action to the Director in pertinent matters. The Assistant Director of the Administrative Division of the FBI shall receive all contributions and account for same to the Director. Upon the death of any Special Agent who is a member of said fund the appointed committee will consider the case and submit a recommendation to the Director as to its conclusions. Appropriate instructions will then be issued to the Assistant Director of the Administrative Division, directing him to pay to the designated beneficiary the sum of $10,000. The liability of the fund shall not under any circumstances exceed the amount of monies in the fund at the time any liability shall occur. The following person is designated as my beneficiary for FBI Agents' Insurance Fund:

Dear Mr. Martindell:

Enclosed is the Galley Proof of my biographical sketch which was sent to me for review.

It is suggested that the following awards be added to the list: "American Citizenship award, Junior Order United American Mechanics, 1959; United States Senate Resolution of commendation for distinguished service to U. S., 1961; Mutual of Omaha Criss Award, 1961; Freedoms Foundation's George Washington Honor Medal for second time, 1962; first annual Distinguished Service Award of Order Knights of Pythias, 1962."

"A Study of Communism, 1962," should be added to the list of books which I have written.

After the above additions have been made, the sketch will be satisfactory for printing.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

NOTE: The first 4 awards mentioned in paragraph two above were added to the Director's biographical sketch in "Who's Who In the South and Southwest" by form letter in June, 1962; therefore, added here to be consistent, and additional award received recently added. While the Director's book will not be published until October, 1962, the Director's biographical sketch will not be released until after October. Therefore, it must be added in order to bring the sketch up to date. The self-addressed, stamped envelope furnished by the Company is being utilized in reply.

ANNOUNCING COMPILATION OF
THE THIRTY-THIRD EDITION OF

WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA

AND REQUESTING YOUR COOPERATION
IN THE PREPARATION OF THAT EDITION

What they* say about WHO'S WHO

(Actual reference users, including many biographees.)

Your colossal edition of WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA has just arrived and if it could be better, it is better than any previous issue, with its liberal margins, distinctive type, and a veritable library of up-to-date biographical information. Surely its originator would have thrilled to have seen such a perfect publication, which makes it possible for one to live even in the Big Thicket of Texas and yet stay in touch with the outside world!

A naturalist and author

Along with the Bible and the dictionary, I find the current edition of WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA my constant companion for every part of the work of this downtown ministry.

A minister

My public activities carry me into many places and many cities. I find that WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA is one of the most widely used books of reference . . . it serves as an introduction of your biographees to the many people that many of them reach. It has enabled me to come to "know" many men and women on the American scene whom I could not meet personally. Your pages serve as a sort of "reception" for honored guests.

A rabbi

Being without WHO'S WHO to me is like a plumber without a wrench. . . . The most valuable book of reference I have ever bought. It is my "alter ego" memory.

An editor

There is no book in our entire library that is more often used . . . not a day passes but that it is consulted one to twenty times, not only by myself but by others in the organization.

An attorney

There reached me a few days ago a copy of WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA, and, as usual, it is a magnificent piece of work. This is the one volume which is used almost every day in my office, and it is the one which gives the data desired.

A university president

I hope your publications will continue to mirror the growth of our country and be a chief historical source for generations to come. . . . Your fine portrayals make one feel that you are creating a living link between ourselves and posterity. Praises are vain, but a record of one's endeavors adds meaning to life. Yours is doubly rich, since it enhances that of others.

An author

Remarks of The Rev. Dr. Arthur Judson Brown, the oldest WHO'S WHO biographee at a gathering in New York on the publication of a recent volume of WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA.

WHO'S WHO is not only more than a book. It is a masterpiece, an important factor in life and work as useful as a dictionary and more interesting. WHO'S WHO tells us what we want to know about the statesmen who govern, the educators who train our youth, the scientists who increase our equipment, the scholars who open wide doors into the mysteries of nature and life, the poets and philosophers who enrich our literature and the prophets who remind us that we are not animals but children of God!

You can well imagine the constant use we have WHO'S WHO. It is invaluable.

An embassy secretary

In order to assist the Latin American universities commissioned the American Library Association to compile a bibliography of 250 of the best recent books in all. A special project committee was appointed by the ALA to perform this task and they completed their assignment admirably. . . . The purpose of this letter is to acquaint you with the program and to inform you of the book which publishes (WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA) that is included in the bibliography.

Corporation executive

What a tremendous aid to the biographee is a list of WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA. Again and again asked to speak in various parts of the country or to perform at various functions, requests for biographical data are quickly disposed of by referring the person making inquiry to WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA. This is not only a more facile method, but it is also unembarrassing and impersonal.

Although WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA has been easily available where I have worked, I wish to have them at home also. Consequently I own the volume WHO WAS WHO and many succeeding volumes of WHO'S WHO. To have the volumes at hand, whether I am in my office or at home, allows me to answer questions which arise and to complete the matter in hand forthwith.

A physician

As each biennial copy of WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA appears, I am more and more convinced of the importance of the Marquis Company. Every second year I find that no reference book is so eagerly sought in libraries and reference centers. My confreres and my advanced scholars wait eagerly for me to hand my discarded WHO'S WHO to them! Their eagerness pleased me.

An educator

What the new Volume 33

WHO'S WHO offers

REVISED: Increased content — more than 56,500 concise, up-to-the-minute daily-reference-useful biographical listings, each diligently revised and brought down-to-date. More "late data" made possible by special binding arrangements providing for the inclusion of a "final addendum" section just prior to publication date. Printed by the latest processes from plastic plates on paper especially manufactured to the Editors' opacity specifications.

AUGMENTED: Over 7,500 entirely new sketches, never before appearing in WHO'S WHO, of outstanding, today's head-line news, living Americans — men and women — and notable foreigners intimately connected with this country by achievement or current prominence.

SCOPE: The "in America" in WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA is used in its established western continental meaning — the Western Hemisphere — carefully selected groupings representative of Canada and Latin America being listed.

SIZE: Over 3,600 pages—in the easy-to-use library format—yet handy because the large page type area provides a "tall and thin" WHO'S WHO (11 inches high, 8 inches wide, 3½ inches thick).

TYPE FACE: Especially selected for reference use and made up, due to larger page area, to provide more "air."

What WHO'S WHO tells you

Some of the Always-Asked Questions WHO'S WHO Answers:
*What's he done? What's he interested in? Where's he from? What's he doing now?
What's his age? Family? Education? Where is he?*

"There is only one WHO'S WHO, and it needs no court determination to establish the volume as the ranking index of American Talent and enterprise . . . WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA is not just another book. It is a national institution."

and they especially request your attention to such details as the occupational designation given in the first line and the dates of termination of positions no longer held, in the body of the sketch, as experience indicates that in the case of frequently revised WHO'S WHO sketches, errors or incomplete information most often occur in those places.

Obviously the accuracy and the currency which this periodic checking at firsthand provides for personal and career data, given world-wide circulation in WHO'S WHO, is directly in the interest of those selected for listing in it, and to whom its Editors must, of necessity, turn for the required cooperation.

is to extend to its biographees advance-of-publication-bookings discounts (up to 25% - $7.15 saving) exceeding even those for many years allowed libraries, schools and other institutional reference users.

It is in part possible to offer these preferences to biographees who assist our Editors to keep their sketches accurate because, by setting the initial press run to include their pre-publication bookings important production economies become obtainable - and this is especially true in the case of an over 3,600 page volume which takes upwards of six months to print and bind.

These important discounts ... available only to those listed in WHO'S WHO so assisting its Editors ... are:

On their pre-publication subscriptions accompanied by remittance, 25% ($7.15 saving), reducing the pre-publication list price of WHO'S WHO ($28.50) to but $21.35 with all delivery costs prepaid.

On their pre-publication subscriptions to be billed against open account on delivery, 15% ($4.30 saving) - making WHO'S WHO available to them for $24.20.

Copies of WHO'S WHO specially bound in genuine leather, with your name imprinted on the cover, are available at your option at an additional cost of $7.50 per copy.

A convenient form is enclosed which - on your sketch being returned now - provides these preferences. (WHO'S WHO is, for professional vocational, or business reference use, a deductible expense taxwise.)

It is with the foregoing factors of mutual interest in mind that we request your cooperation in now placing your subscription to the coming edition - the enclosed postpaid envelope may of course be used for your booking as well as for return of your sketch.

Please return the sketch proof even if no changes are to be made, for it must take its alphabetical place in the compilers' files for the new edition to avoid possible accidental omissions later in the compilative procedure.

Your cooperation on both these scores ... up-dating your sketch, and placing of an advance-of-publication booking that will reduce the price to you ... will be appreciated - while early return of the enclosed proof will be helpful to our Editors in connection with their task of meeting tight schedules.

To insure currency and accuracy of your data at the time of publication of the new edition, it is suggested that you advise us of any significant changes therein as they occur, making reference to this letter by its symbol (WA/CA) or to WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA, for our Editors' convenience.

Dear Sir:

Not a day goes by but that someone seeks biographical information here at the college for one reason or another. Perhaps the President of the college requires biographical data on an important speaker or someone who is receiving special honor from the college. Sometimes in recruitment of faculty members your biographical directories are consulted. Faculty members are constantly using the A. M. Marquis publications in their work. We who assist in gathering information for faculty, student and administrative use find these volumes indispensable. Reference work would be very disappointing without them.

It is gratifying that the editors have selected a number of our own faculty members for inclusion in Who's Who in America, the writer being one of them. You may rest assured that we are deeply grateful.

Sincerely yours,

Thirty-Third Biennial Edition

Below is a proof of your sketch as published in the previous biennial Edition of "Who's Who." Both to bring new data to the Editors' attention and to notify them that the sketch is otherwise in order for inclusion in the files for the next Edition, merely follow the procedure noted to the right below. Extending this cooperation in maintaining the reference serviceability of "Who's Who" which the Editors must of necessity ask of you, will be greatly appreciated by them — and appreciation for it which they can offer is tendered in the paragraph boxed in red in the lower left hand corner of this sheet.

Should the biographee named below not be living, the Editors will appreciate this sheet being returned to them by the person into whose hands it may fall, with a (signed or initialed) notation of the date of death. Such cooperation will assure transfer of the sketch to the next edition of "Who's Who in America."

Proofs sent during compilation are usually for the purpose of bringing to attention the latest information suggested for consideration by the Editors, and are not intended to commit the Editors to publishing any or all of the data involved in any specific issue, instead of holding the data on file.

BY WAY OF RECIPROCATION

For many years it has been a Marquis policy to offer to biographees, as a reciprocation for the cooperation which they are asked, which our Editors must of necessity request, to obtain the reference serviceability of "Who's Who" not only a "priority" assuring them copies despite the fact that editions are limited as closely as possible to advance of publication orders and the known requirements of the trade and reference centers, but as well the not inconsiderable discounts (on their advance of publication subscriptions) detailed in the accompanying letter. The accompanying form validating these discounts is of course restricted to use by the biographee named in the proof above.

NOTE 1: That personal biographical data made permanently of record for public consultation at libraries and other reference centers throughout the world in "Who's Who" be currently accurate, is obviously of concern alike to the biographees and its Editors. The Editors for their part undertake a complete revision of "Who's Who" biennially, and, as individual data can be most effectively checked only at first hand, earnestly request the personal cooperation of biographees to that end. As a complete revision of "Who's Who" for the next printing is now actively in compilation, such a request is now made of you by the Editors in respect to the proof attached to this sheet. Therefore please promptly note below — on the sheet itself — any necessary alterations or additions valid as of the date it reaches you. To obviate the necessity of sending out another compilers' copy sheet, please return this one at once, regardless of whether or not changes are suggested.

2: DO NOT REWRITE the sketch, as it has already been set in type as shown. Since scattered minor alterations may involve complete resetting, the Editors, because of the continually difficult production situation, will additionally appreciate cooperation in minimizing them.

Jack Brown, Assistant Budget Officer in the Administrative Division of the Department of Justice, telephonically contacted the writer yesterday afternoon and stated they had received a request from the captioned Congressman for the amounts expended by individual directors of any "main five Bureaus of the Department." He did not want names. Brown indicated they were getting this information from the Bureau of Prisons, Immigration and Naturalization Service, FBI and all of the Assistant Attorney Generals for the fiscal year 1961 since this is the last actual fiscal year.

Upon request Brown furnished the writer with the attached copy of the inquiry from Beckworth and a copy of the Department's reply to his initial inquiry on which Beckworth merely typed his current request. Beckworth's letter of April 9th indicated he was a member of the Davis Manpower Subcommittee and would like to see all of the economy in Government possible. He went on to state "To what extent has your agency made a study of whether or not there is excessive traveling of your employees?" The Department responded to this inquiry in a letter from Andretta dated April 13th, in which he pointed out that expenditures from the entire Department's appropriation for travel account for only 3.9 percent of the appropriation. Andretta pointed out that the duties of FBI Agents, Immigration Inspectors, Deputy Marshals and those in the U. S. Attorney's offices require them to travel frequently and outlined five policies and limitations currently prescribed by Departmental regulations. It was on this response of April 13th that Beckworth made his present inquiry.

A review of the Director's travel vouchers for the fiscal year 1961 reflect he was in a travel status 35 days and was reimbursed $667.99 or an average of $19.08 a day; in addition to which Government Transportation Requests in the amount of $689.89 were issued for a total travel expenditure for the fiscal year 1961 of $1,357.88. Attached for the Director's information is an itemization showing how this figure was arrived at.

RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended that Brown be advised as above that the Director was a travel status of 35 days during the fiscal year 1961, total expended for subsistence $667.99 and transportation $689.89 for a total of $1,357.88.

Dear Friend:

I am a member of the Davis Manpower Subcommittee. Naturally I would like to see all of the economy in government possible.

To what extent has your agency made a study of whether or not there is excessive traveling of your employees?

Any information you might give will be appreciated.

Please return.

Honorable Lindley Beekworth
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.

Dear Congressman Beekworth:

This is in reply to your letter of April 9, 1962, relative to travel control measures.

About 80 percent of the Department's funds are expended for personal services while expenditures for travel account for only 1.9 percent. When it is realized that the duties of F.B.I. agents, Immigration Inspectors, deputy marshals, and those in the U. S. Attorneys' offices require them to travel frequently, the amount spent for travel is very modest in proportion to other expenditures. Nevertheless we maintain constant controls where possible to assure that these costs are held to a minimum.

The following policies and limitations are currently prescribed by Departmental regulations:

1. The authorized rate of reimbursement for mileage for official travel by privately owned automobiles is 10 cents per mile or 2 cents per mile less than the maximum allowed by law.
2. Departmental personnel are required to obtain common carrier accommodations less costly than first-class whenever possible. The higher cost of first-class travel is allowed only upon satisfactory explanation of why less costly accommodations could not have been used.
3. Deputy marshals having prisoners to transport to or from jails are under standing instructions to contact other marshals' offices along the route of travel to determine whether there are other prisoners that could be handled on the same trip thereby avoiding duplicating trips.
4. Long absences from headquarters call for readjustment downward of per diem in lieu of subsistence.
5. All requests for travel in those instances which are subject to control, must be submitted and authorized in advance accompanied by sufficient justification.

We are constantly making inquiries and studies in order to avoid excessive travel.

RE: Mr. J. Edgar Hoover
(Type or print plainly)

Dear Sir:

For inclusion in the fund to be paid to the designated beneficiary of any Special Agent of the FBI who has previously contributed to this fund and who dies from any cause except self-destruction while employed as a Special Agent, I am forwarding herewith (by CHECK - MONEY ORDER) the sum of $10, payable to the Assistant Director, Administrative Division, FBI, to be included in said fund. Payment will be made for death by self-destruction after the Agent has been a member of the fund for a continuous period of two years. It is understood and agreed that the sum tendered herewith is a voluntary, gratuitous contribution to said fund which I understand is to be administered in the following manner.

The Director of the FBI will appoint a committee which shall consider all matters pertaining to the acquisition, safe keeping and expending of said fund, which committee will recommend appropriate action to the Director in pertinent matters. The Assistant Director of the Administrative Division of the FBI shall receive all contributions and account for same to the Director. Upon the death of any Special Agent who is a member of said fund the appointed committee will consider the case and submit a recommendation to the Director as to its conclusions. Appropriate instructions will then be issued to the Assistant Director of the Administrative Division, directing him to pay to the designated beneficiary the sum of $10,000. The liability of the fund shall not under any circumstances exceed the amount of monies in the fund at the time any liability shall occur. The following person is designated as my beneficiary for FBI Agents' Insurance Fund:

Name Estate	Relationship	Date 2-21-62

In my 12-1-61 memorandum, I advised that Mr. E. Robert Kramer, Security Consultant of The Martin Company, Baltimore, Maryland, would be recontacted for details as to his report that discussion had taken place in the White House regarding possible replacement of the Director with Mr. William O. Boswell, Director, Office of Security, State Department.

SA J. M. Matter obtained the following information from Kramer on 12-5-61. The report originally came from Mr. Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., of Reno, Nevada (presently staying at the Windsor Hotel, 2300 Connecticut Avenue, Northwest, Washington, D. C., phone HUDson 3-7700). On 11-30-61, Vanderbilt had an appointment with Mr. Arthur Sylvester, Assistant Secretary of Defense, Public Affairs. Sylvester told Vanderbilt the following: (1) J. Edgar Hoover is considering resigning as Director of the FBI to accept a position in private industry. (2) William O. Boswell has been suggested as a possible successor to Mr. Hoover. Vanderbilt attributed this to the White House as a result of Sylvester's close association with Pierre Salinger, White House Press Secretary, and Arthur Schlesinger, Jr., Special Assistant to the President.

Kramer "talked to Vanderbilt at breakfast" by long distance telephone in Miami about 10:00 a.m. on Friday, 12-1-61, at which time Vanderbilt gave him the information regarding the Director. Kramer has no objection to Vanderbilt being contacted in regard to this matter.

Without revealing his source, Kramer has since personally advised Congressman Francis E. Walter, Chairman of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, and the office of Massachusetts Senator Leverett Saltonstall, Senate Appropriations Committee, of this report and urged them to oppose Boswell, if he does receive an appointment, on the basis of his being incompetent for a job as important as the Director of the FBI.

SUBJECT: INFORMATION RECEIVED CONCERNING THE DIRECTOR

At approximately 10:25 a. m. on December 1, 1961, Laboratory Supervisor John M. Matter received a long distance telephone call from Mr. E. Robert Kramer in Miami, Florida, in which Kramer stated he had been advised confidentially by a personal friend who received information from a source in the White House that a discussion has been taking place in the White House regarding possible replacement of the Director with Mr. William O. Boswell, Director, Office of Security, State Department.

In placing this call from Miami, Kramer stated, "I am furnishing this information because I think it's a hell of a thing." He advised that while having breakfast this morning with a friend in Miami, the friend told him that, "a discussion has been taking place within the Administration as to replacing Mr. Hoover with William O. Boswell." Kramer was tactfully pressed as to the identity of the person furnishing this information. He replied, "I am sorry, I can't reveal that, but I can say it came to my friend from a source in the White House." Kramer was further pressed as to the reliability of his friend's information and replied, "He has never let me down in the past."

RECORDED 561-344

E. Robert Kramer served in the Office of Strategic Services during World War II. Since the War, he has been employed by the Mosler Research Products Company (Danbury, Connecticut), Security Devices Laboratories (Falls Church, Virginia), and Airtronics, Incorporated (Fort Lauderdale, Florida). Currently, he is a security consultant to the Martin Company of Baltimore, Maryland. His business address is Beaver Company, 1029 Vermont Avenue, Northwest, Washington, D. C. Pages 16914-16919 of the Congressional Record for August 29, 1960, reflect the Senate passed with amendments, H. R. 13053, a bill to provide salary increases for Metropolitan Police, D. C. Firemen, U. S. Park Police, and White House Police. Senator Bridges, (R) New Hampshire, offered the following amendment: "Sec. 5. Any person who shall retire for age after serving at least thirty years as Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation shall receive an annuity during the remainder of his life equal to the salary payable to him at the time of his retirement." The amendment was agreed to. The bill now goes back to the House for action on the Senate amendments. Mr. Bridges, in explaining his amendment, stated "the purpose of this amendment is very simple. It is to afford a measure of recognition to FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover for a lifetime dedicated to the welfare of this country." Senator Frear, (D) Delaware, joined Mr. Bridges and stated "I concur in all that he said, and I would like to add whatever emphasis I can to his statement, for certainly J. Edgar Hoover is cherished by all Americans and deserves this consideration." Senator Lausche, (D) Ohio, stated "I hold J. Edgar Hoover in the highest respect. I value deeply the services he has performed. However, I am obliged to say that regardless of his patriotism and the righteousness of what he has done, we would embark upon a program that would likely rise to plague us. - - - But I cannot bring myself to the conviction that there is anyone who serves the Government who ought to be permitted to retire and to receive the same pay that he did while he was working."

Dear Mr. Hoover:

This morning Governor Harold W. Handley signed the proclamation designating October 15, 1959 as "J. Edgar Hoover Day" in Indiana. I am forwarding the original of this proclamation to you under separate cover. The signing of this proclamation was covered by TV and press representatives.

I presented your letter and autographed copy of your book to Governor Handley, and he was most appreciative of your thoughtfulness. He said that he and his wife had read your book and felt that it is the best account of the Communist menace that has been written. He said he was very proud to now have an autographed copy of the book for his library. Governor Handley is very much interested in the subject of Communism, and he remarked it is disturbing to him that so many Americans still fail to see through the deceit and treachery of the Communists. He stated that every American should read and study your book.

I thanked Governor Handley for paying such a wonderful tribute to you in issuing this proclamation, and he stated that no public official in this country was more deserving.

Sincerely,

E. J. Powers

Governor Handley is very much interested in the subject of Communism, and he remarked it is disturbing to him that so many Americans still fail to see through the deceit and treachery of the Communists. He stated that every American should read and study your book.

I thanked Governor Handley for paying such a wonderful tribute to you in issuing this proclamation, and he stated that no public official in this country was more deserving.

The Director (born 1-1-95) will reach age 65 on 1-1-60. The purpose of this memorandum is to report the effect of an amendment to the Federal Employees Group Life Insurance Act with respect to the Director's insurance coverage. Public Law 86-377, which amended the insurance act, was approved 9-23-59. It provides employees, who reach the age of 65 and continue on an agency's rolls, with full life insurance coverage at full premium cost until an employee retires. The Director, with annual salary of $22,000, presently has life insurance coverage of $20,000, which is the maximum coverage which the law permits. This coverage will continue until retirement at full premium cost, which is $5.00 per pay period, providing a waiver of coverage is not executed. The Director has an option to waive coverage at any time.

Only on retirement will the 2 percent per month reduction take place. Such reduction of coverage continues for a period of about two years and two months following retirement until the coverage is reduced to 25 percent of the face value existing at retirement age, which in the Director's case would be $5,000.

The latter amount of coverage would then continue for the rest of his life at no premium cost. It will be recalled that before this amendment was enacted, the 2 percent per month reduction of coverage started once an employee reached age 65.

RECOMMENDATION:

This is the cheapest life insurance anyone could get

That the Director indicate his desire to continue or waive his life insurance coverage.

On the second day of the current session of the National Academy the class members, during a lecture on the history and jurisdiction of the Bureau, were advised that Mr. Hoover was named Director of the FBI on 5/10/24. A couple of days later a committee selected by the class inquired of this division if it would be in order for the class members to do something to recognize the Director's 35th Anniversary. They were advised there would be no objection whatsoever to this and we were sure Mr. Hoover would appreciate their thoughtfulness. As a result a collection was taken up by the class members and they have had prepared a very beautiful plaque. This plaque has an appropriate congratulatory message and the name of each class member engraved upon it. The company working on the plaque has spent 3 weeks making it. It is now ready.

The class members want to present this plaque in a fitting manner and several of them have expressed the hope that the whole class can be present when the president, Chief of Police Dan Liu of Honolulu, makes the presentation.

It is time to make the class photograph and a recommendation is being made that the photograph be taken at noon tomorrow, Thursday, May 7, in the courtyard. There will be no visiting instructors appearing before the class from 11 to 12. The thought has occurred to us that if the Director is agreeable, it would be nice to have President Liu present the plaque to the Director as soon as the Director arrives for the photograph and before the photograph is actually taken. Chief Liu would be in the front row and could merely step forward when the Director arrives, make a very short presentation speech, and then give the plaque to the Director. After acknowledgment by the Director, the photograph could then be taken.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

(1) That the class photograph of the 63rd Session, FBI National Academy, be made in the courtyard at 12 noon, Thursday, May 7.

Mr. Fox called by the Director's Office Friday, March 13, 1959, and was referred to my office.

Mr. Fox stated that he is a portrait artist and that he desires very much to paint a portrait of the Director. He indicated it would not be necessary for the Director to sit for the portrait but rather he would select a photograph which he preferred and then Fox would paint the portrait from the photograph.

Mr. Fox indicated that he usually charges $2,500 to $3,000 for his portraits. He has painted such individuals as Father Flanagan, the Honorable Herbert Hoover, the late Chief Justice Stone and many other prominent individuals.

Mr. Fox insisted on taking a current photograph of the Director back with him to New York for the purpose of preparing a sketch. He stated there would be no obligation involved and that the photograph and the sketch would be returned within one month. I told Mr. Fox this was, of course, something the Director would have to pass upon, that the Director was not in the building at the present time and that it would, therefore, be impossible to give him a photograph for this purpose. Mr. Fox stated he understood and that he would be back in town within approximately one month and would call then to see if the Director was interested in having his portrait painted.

ACTION:

It is suggested I tell Mr. Fox when he again calls that the Director has carefully considered this matter but does not desire to have his portrait painted at this time.

There is attached a brochure reflecting the individuals whose portraits have been painted by Mr. Fox.

Humanitarian Award to J. Edgar Hoover

LAS VEGAS, Nev., Apr. 3 — Youth Clubs International today named J. Edgar Hoover as winner of their "Humanitarian of the Year" award for his fight against juvenile delinquency.

The F. B. I. chief also was cited for his "monumental efforts in safeguarding the nation against the insidiousness of communism."

Mr. Hoover becomes the twentieth winner of the annual award given by the world-wide organization of show business people. Previous winners have included Herbert Hoover, Henry Ford 3d, Sister Zauney, Bernard M. Baruch, Sir Winston Churchill and Konrad Adenauer.

The organization, holding its convention here, said the award winner was chosen by a committee made up of seventy news, paper editors, twenty-five college presidents and all living previous recipient of the award.

Jack Adams of AP at 11:15 a. m. today, told Wick that the AP board in New York received a cable from an affiliate magazine in Munich, Germany, requesting to purchase from AP the photograph of "J. Edgar Hoover's wedding ten years ago to the mother of Jane Russell."

Adams explained he did not know the identity of the Munich magazine making the request nor the reason for it. He stated such publications are referred to as affiliates of AP in that they may purchase AP photographs and wire stories but are not members of AP in the sense that they have a voice in AP management.

Wick told Adams AP could reply that "Mr. Hoover is a bachelor and has never married." Adams said he thought the Director would get a kick out of this and that is why he passed it on to us.

FBI Head Could List Red I. A.

Chief Los Angeles Examiner
Washington Bureau

"You know what I said," said Theodore, the Washington "news" driver, as we passed the White House.

"What?" I remarked co-operatively.

"I am going to quit early and write a letter to the editor which will supply a most powerful idea," said Theodore.

"Tell it to me, instead. I suggested, and I will present it to our Dear Public. Then it will be unnecessary for you to leave your passengers in the lurch."

"It's a deal," said Theodore. "My idea concerns our plan to expose the matter of indirect aggression by Communist Russia in the Middle East."

"Is quite a nifty remark," I said.

"All I am saying," continued Theodore, "is that what is I. A. in Lebanon is pretty much the same in the U. S. A. and maybe worse."

"Perhaps you have something," I said, "and perhaps Mister Khrushchev might agree not to commit any more indirect aggression in our country."

"That would be just dandy," said Theodore. "Mister Khrushchev would make another agreement like the one he made to come to the United Nations Security Council Summit meeting. I am paying FBI Director Hoover again."

"That's the way," I said.

DAVID SENTNER

WASHINGTON WINDOW

FBI's Hoover Much Concerned With 'Indirect Aggression'

YOU KNOW what, said Theobald the Washington taxicab driver as we passed the White House...

What? I remarked cooperatively.

I am going to quit early and write a letter to the which will supply a most powerful idea, said Theobald.

Tell it to me, instead, I suggested, and I will present to our dear public. Then it will be unnecessary for you to leave your passengers in the lurch.

It is a deal, said Theobald. My idea concerns our plan to expose the matter of indirect aggression by Russia in the Middle East and elsewhere before the upcoming special meeting of the UN General Assembly.

Secretary of State Dulles says Moscow has been brain-trusting indirect aggression in North Korea, North Vietnam, East Europe and all over.

PRESIDENT Eisenhower says we have told the world of 125 incidents of I. A. by the Communists in Lebanon alone.

Now, I say this... let us have FBI director J. Edgar Hoover address the UN General Assembly and show them how Russia has been committing indirect aggression against us Americans for almost forty years, ordering their agents to bore inside our government, schools, labor unions, etc.

If indirect aggression must be stopped to prevent World

War III, as Mister Dulles says, then we better start in our own front yard.

FBI Director Hoover could give the UN 125 times 125 incidents of how Russia is giving us the I. A., and how.

I am afraid, I put in, that such a unique parliamentary proposal as presenting FBI evidence of Communist subversive activities in the U. S. before the UN would open us to charges of witch-hunting.

If J. Edgar Hoover is a witch hunter, said Theobald, then let us buy him more broomsticks and make Halloween a national holiday.

I suppose you think that is quite a nifty remark, I said.

All I am saying, continued Theobald, is that what is I. A. in Lebanon is pretty much the same in the U. S. A. and maybe worse.

Perhaps you have something, I said, and perhaps Mister Khrushchev might agree not to commit any more indirect aggression in our country.

THAT WOULD be just dandy, said Theobald; Mister Khrushchev would make another agreement like the one he made to come to the UN Security Council meeting. I am paging FBI Director Hoover again.

Meaning which, I said.

I would have Director Hoover also present to the UN general assembly the 125 times that the Soviet Union has broken its agreements, beginning with its promise not to conduct any more subversive activities in the U. S. after we recognized them.

Remember, I said, the Supreme Court has ruled that Communists cannot be convicted of overthrowing our government unless they are caught in the act.

Maybe, said Theobald, we can get those bigwig justices to listen in on Director Hoover when he tells it to the UN.

HOOPER BACKS VEECK 20

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 5.—J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, thoroughly agrees with Bill Veeck in his suggestion that baseball bonuses be curtailed and a common pool be formed for drafting young talent.

Hoover, who is at nearby La Jolla for his annual physical check-up, believes that Veeck's recent articles, "I Know Who's Killing Baseball," which were published in The Hearst Newspapers, were constructive, particularly concerning the bonus and common draft.

"It makes good sound sense to me," Hoover said, "for all of the major league clubs to pool their resources and have their scouts recommend young baseball talent for a common draft."

"Competition—fair, open and vigorous—is the backbone of our American system. It is what we call free enterprise, and there should be no place for monopoly in sports, any more than any other business."

Public Law 85-462, approved 6/20/58, providing increases in pay for all employees paid under the Classification Act contained a new pay computation formula for obtaining the hourly, daily, weekly, biweekly, and other rates for all employees in the Federal Government, except the heads of agencies, elected officials, Federal Judges, and certain other specific employees. The new formula provides for first computing the hourly pay by dividing the annual salary rate by 2080 hours (260 pay days in year multiplied by 8 hours) and multiplying the hourly rate thus obtained by 8, 40, or 80 as the case may be to get the daily, weekly, or biweekly pay. In addition, any fraction of a cent in any computation is converted to a whole cent. The old formula provided for obtaining the biweekly rate by dividing the annual rate by 26 pay periods; the biweekly rate divided by 80, adjusted to the nearest cent provided the hourly rate, and the daily rate was obtained by multiplying the hourly rate by 8.

The new formula simplifies many pay computations, however, in many instances it results in employees receiving in a year slightly more than the annual rates of pay. This matter has been discussed with officials in the office of the General Counsel, GAO, who advised that such higher payments are legal. The new pay formula was recommended to Congress by that office, with the full knowledge it would result in such higher payments in some instances; estimated total yearly payments in excess of annual rates for entire Government approximately $4,500,000; GAO felt additional cost would be more than offset by savings through simplification of pay computations; bulk of excess payments caused by the conversion of fractional cents to whole cents.

For information purposes the effect of the new pay computation formula may be seen in the biweekly salary payments for the Director and the Associate Director under the old and new formulae, as shown in attached tabulations.

How I got my first job—II

Law enforcement offers graduate great challenge

The choice of a first job may change one's life. As millions of young Americans make the decision, J. Edgar Hoover, director of the FBI, tells of the challenge of law enforcement as a career.

BY J. EDGAR HOOVER, director of the FBI
WASHINGTON, June 17—(NANA)—Would I advise you to enter law enforcement on the basis of my experience?

Well, in my case circumstances dictated the primary decision which led from a clerical job in the Library of Congress and night school at the George Washington University to law degrees and a job in the United States Department of Justice.

I ~~have~~ not regretted one step of the route.

Today, law enforcement offers a whole new field for educated men. The profession, recently created, has only to be developed and perfected. No area of work, in my opinion, offers greater opportunity to the college graduate for a career of public service.

The crime problem today is a frightening one. Estimates of the number of offenses known to police in 1957 totaled 2,788,400. This total is 9.1 per cent above the total of 1956, and it is 23.9 per cent over an average of the previous five years. The challenge inherent in these figures is obvious.

Second of 12 articles.

Our profession is young and vigorous. It is also demanding. It is shouting for youth, capacity, integrity. It offers opportunities in the field of administration and in specialized technical areas. Fingerprint identification, laboratory work and photography are among these.

There have been recent great strides in advancing law enforcement as a career service. Much is yet to be desired, but growing public understanding is resulting in improvements all along the line.

This includes facilities, equipment, salaries, retirement and job security. With regard to this last, there is growing sentiment that accountability be based on performance and not political whim.

Law enforcement is no easy career and no honest man has grown wealthy in the profession. The compensations may seem intangible but I have found them worth striving for. I know of no profession which offers a greater challenge to intelligence and integrity.

Law enforcement awaits your contribution.

We have received a form letter from L. G. Pine, Editor of The International Year Book and Statesmen's Who's Who attaching a proof of the Director's biographical entry scheduled to appear in the 1959 Edition of this publication. In the past, as far as the Director's honors are concerned, we have listed only the honorary degrees which Mr. Hoover has received, the Medal of Merit - 1946 and the Honorary K. B. E. (United Kingdom) - 1947 in this particular biographical entry. We have also listed the Director's book, "Persons in Hiding." Suttler feels we should at this time add the Director's new book, "Masters of Deceit," as well as the two outstanding honors Mr. Hoover has received this year, namely, the "President's Award for Distinguished Federal Civilian Service," 1958, and the "Great Living Americans" award given by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, 1958.

RECOMMENDATION:

That this change be approved and the attached letter be sent to Editor L. G. Pine.

J. Edgar Hoover

KEEP THE SPOTLIGHT ON

In a filmed TV interview Sunday with Rep. Kathleen B. Keating (R-N. Y.), FBI chief J. Edgar Hoover reported that his agency has 90 wiretap operations around the country, keeping tabs on Communists and fellow travelers — an item which we trust will cause a lot of Reds to lose a lot of sleep.

Why Shield Criminals?

Mr. Hoover also paid his disrespects to people who think juvenile delinquents' names should be kept out of the papers because of their youth.

The no-publicity philosophy bypasses the fact that most delinquents are not innocent, mixed-up children, but tough, usually cop-hating criminals. Publicity is one of the better medicines for these creatures, regardless of age, and let's just keep the spotlight turned on them.

Margale Publications Building
Chicago 11, Illinois

Dear Mr. Sammons:

Enclosed you will find the proof of my biographical sketch which you intend to publish in your forthcoming volume of Who's Who in the South and Southwest. The following changes are suggested:

1. Thirteenth line from the bottom after the words, "Member Nat. Court of Honor," add the words, "Honorary Member, National Council," Boy Scouts of America.
2. Fourth line from the bottom before the word, "Author;" add the following: "Recipient of President's Award for Distinguished Federal Civilian Service, 1958."
3. Third line from the bottom after the words, "in Hiding, 1938;" add "Masters of Deceit, 1958;"

I am also enclosing an extra thin white copy of this letter for inclusion in your "Who's Who in America" file. You will also find enclosed two copies of my biographical sketch dated February 10, 1958, one copy for Who's Who in the South and Southwest and the other copy for "Who's Who in America." This is in accord with the suggestion contained in your letter enclosed with the proof copy of my biographical sketch.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA

1898 - 60th Anniversary of WHO'S WHO - 1958

Dear "Who's Who" Biographee:

You are - as is every "Who's Who in America" biographee - automatically listed in our other standard biographical dictionaries, whenever location or vocation so suggests ...

the one currently in compilation is the new Sixth Edition of WHO'S WHO IN THE SOUTH AND SOUTHWEST.

The reasons for this "dual listing" are given in detail in the enclosure entitled "The Whys and Wherefores of Listing 'Who's Who' Biographees in the Other Marquis Biographical Dictionaries."

is enclosure also explains why our editors not only utilize this necessary relisting as a convenient opportunity for "Who's Who" biographees to make available at-the-moment changes or corrections, but also to place on record - or, if they so desire, permanently in print - significant data which obviously could not be published continuously in "Who's Who" itself.

When a "Who's Who" biographee desires - and so requests - to have an appropriately detailed biography ... of the type referred to above ... of record in print for all time, we gladly cooperate additionally ... with the worthwhile objectives noted in the enclosure in mind ... by marking it in the sectional volume with a typographical symbol which will assure ultimate transfer of it, instead of the necessarily more condensed last-published "Who's Who" sketch, to a volume of "Who Was Who" in the Marquis Library of Continuous American Biography, which reaches back to Civil War days.

Our editors ... being in full agreement with the expert advice mentioned in the enclosure on making of record for all time personal data in connection with the obvious familial and successorial factors cited on the last page of this letter ...

are therefore glad indeed to cooperate with "Who's Who" biographees in expanding our biographical files - now, as the information on the last page suggests, probably the most extensive in the country - and the printed record of soundly selected American biography available in libraries.

As a convenient means for noting data corrections or changes for the editors' attention, we send proofs of the last-published "Who's Who" sketches affected, when preparing new editions of the sectional and the functional dictionaries.

That I am now doing in respect to your "Who's Who" sketch and the new Sixth Edition of WHO'S WHO IN THE SOUTH AND SOUTHWEST, now in compilation, as you are, according to our records, located within the latter's regional scope (the Southern and Southwestern states), or significantly otherwise identified with it.

Simply jot down any changes, corrections or essential additions beside the enclosed proof and mail it to our editors, as promptly as is convenient, in the accompanying no-postage-required envelope.

While, if you desire ... in view of the purposes I have mentioned ... to make permanently of record in print a more detailed biography than is appropriate under the current general reference requirements to which the scope of "Who's Who" is limited ... and to be typographically marked for eventual placement in the Marquis Library of American Biography ... use Sections 2 and 3 as provided on the enclosed Data Sheet for the additional information (attaching a separate sheet to it if need be), and returning it to us in the postpaid and self-addressed envelope.

I take it it goes without saying

- for we naturally wish all "Who's Who" biographees to have every advantage or priority we can legitimately offer in respect to any of our publications - that we will be glad to service any bookings for WHO'S WHO IN THE SOUTH AND SOUTHWEST made by you at the same pre-publication subscription preferentials extended to its non-"Who's Who" biographees in reciprocation for their helpfulness in supplying original data.

The enclosed preferential subscription form is, in fact, the one they are sent, after thus assisting our editors, and you are welcome to use it to book

WHO'S WHO IN THE SOUTH AND SOUTHWEST, (containing either the data corrections or changes you now send, or the more detailed biography to be typographically marked for final, permanent inclusion in the Marquis Library of Continuous American Biography).

Because of the current abnormal labor and material conditions, the press run for the new WHO'S WHO IN THE SOUTH AND SOUTHWEST is to be limited, as closely as practicable, to subscriptions in hand before publication, and known requirements of reference centers.

Therefore using the enclosed Southern and Southwestern biographees' form assures delivery even under this unusual production situation - since it automatically provides inclusion in the press run - quite aside from affording a considerable dollars-and-cents advantage.

For giving the editors the cooperation this letter requests, our thanks - "In Records That Defy the Tooth of Time" (see last page) will, I hope, suggest justification for asking it on the score of real mutuality of interest between you and them.

Sincerely yours,

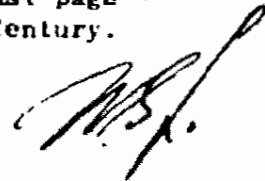

Wheeler Sammons, Jr.
Associate Publisher

Four Enclosures

P. S. I've had this letter lithographed so that I could point up the worth of maintaining a biographical record by illustrating - on the last page - one in marble dating back to the 15th Century.

In records that defy the tooth of time. - EDWARD YOUNG

Until this and the nineteenth century, there were no adequate facilities for making soundly chosen biographical data permanently available for reference use. The life synopsis—on a marble slab—of Luciano Spinola reproduced to the left is, for example, intact after more than 500 years only because the room containing it happened to escape obliteration when the Banco San Giorgio in Genoa was bombed during World War II.

Today, using their carefully tested selective standards and the modern improvements in reproduction methods, Marquis editors continuously carry forward—from the Civil War period—a balanced coverage of the essential biographical data of Americans they have rated under realistic criteria, as in fact noteworthy. And a significant percentage of this capably selected store of life records becomes permanently available in print, shelved in many widely dispersed libraries.

The cost is not inconsiderable—it now approximates half a million dollars annually—and under present conditions is increasing abnormally. Yet this burden is obviously justified by the unique reference source made available for all time to the biographer, the historian, and the researcher; while the expense is entirely nominal to the individual biographer who voluntarily elects to participate, because of the overall worth of the objective or on the score of the many personal successional considerations attaching to perpetuating a biographical record "against the tooth of time"—or both.

Marquis biographical dictionaries provide a national store of biographical data recording the life records of American men and women which is unprecedented not only in point of scope, but as well because its value to reference users, researchers, historians and biographers is unique by reason of the fact that without exception those included in it have been selected under Marquis' thoroughly tested standards for reflecting comparative objectivity to reference interest on meritorious scores.

SKETCH 4015

Issued April 1, 1952

J. EDGAR HOOVER
F.B.I. Director

Born January 1, 1895

[EDITORS: The following substitutes for Sketch 3583 issued March 1, 1950.]

By The Associated Press

The Federal Bureau of Investigation, under J. Edgar Hoover, ended the era of notorious gangsterism and kidnapping in the United States during the 1930s, then threw its protecting arm about national security.

It captured Nazi spies during World War II and Communist spies in the cold war. It was the FBI that discovered that the secret of the atom bomb had been stolen and given to Russia. Evidence collected by this scientific crime detecting organization sent Julius and Ethel Rosenberg to the electric chair for espionage and others to prison.

Blazing guns of college-educated Government agents brought death to one "public enemy" after another. Among them was John Dillinger, probably the most brazen outlaw since Jesse James. His killing was the FBI's first big triumph in its drive on killer-bank robbers who terrorized midwestern communities.

Among the many crimes attributed to Dillinger and his gang in their foray of less than a year were 10 murders.

Woman Betrayed Him

Dillinger was betrayed to the FBI by the "woman in red" who had gone to a Sunday night movie with him in 1934. Agents shot him to death in a Chicago alley while he was trying to draw a pistol.

Gangsters George "Burrhead" Nelson, Charles "Pretty Boy" Floyd and "Ma" and Fred Barker were killed, and Alvin Karpis and George "Machine Gun" Kelly drew long prison sentences.

Nelson had killed three FBI agents before he in turn was killed by agents in a furious gun battle at Barrington, Ill. Floyd and the Barkers also had elected to shoot it out with agents rather than surrender.

The "G-men" proved they could outsmart and outfight "rats"—Hoover's term for criminals.

The FBI had an important part in solving the kidnap-murder of Charles Augustus Lindbergh Jr., one of the most shocking crimes of all. It was the coordinator of all Federal investigative agencies that aided New Jersey officials. Bruno Richard Hauptmann was arrested as the abductor-killer and executed.

At Hauptmann's trial the public learned a lot about science in crime detection as various wonders from the FBI laboratory were unfolded.

Before the 1930s ended, Hoover was able to say that not one organized crime gang was operating.

The FBI in War

Then came World War II and much greater responsibilities for the FBI. It put the heat on likely saboteurs so fast after Pearl Harbor that not a single case of foreign-directed sabotage occurred during the entire war. A great number of enemy aliens were jailed immediately.

Hoover's men also swooped down on enemy premises and seized secret arsenals, explosives and other materials. They recommended security measures for more than 2,000 war plants and captured a number of spies. Sometimes the enemy espionage agents were persuaded to double-cross Adolf Hitler.

In one such case, the FBI constructed a radio station that a German spy had been instructed to build on Long Island. For two years this man, working under strict surveillance, sent misleading information to Germany that the FBI supplied.

The FBI's most spectacular wartime feat was the capture of eight German spies and saboteurs who landed from submarines on the coasts of Florida and Long Island in 1942. All were caught within a few days after their landing.

Atomic Spying Discovered

Hoover personally assisted the Attorney General in their prosecution. Six were executed. The other two were spared that fate because they helped to prepare the case against their fellows. One was sentenced to life imprisonment and the other to 30 years. Both were deported to Germany after the war.

In the fall of 1944 two more landed from a German submarine on the coast of Maine and were caught almost at once. A military commission sentenced them to hang but the President commuted their punishment to life imprisonment.

With the spread of Russian communism after the war, the FBI was on its toes. It was information gained in its investigation of atomic spying to the Soviet Union that resulted in the 1950 arrest of Dr. Klaus Fuchs, the British government's top atomic scientist.

Fuchs, a refugee from Nazi Germany, pleaded guilty to betraying his adopted country and was given the maximum sentence of 14 years' imprisonment in England.

He had worked during the war at Los Alamos, N.M., where the first atomic bomb was assembled, and at Harwell, the center of British atomic research. A congressional committee rated him as the spy in all history.

Others Rounded Up

Fuchs' arrest set off a hunt that sent the Red to the chair and others to prison.

During the 1949 trial of 11 top American communist leaders on charges advocating the violent overthrow of the Government, developed that FBI agents infiltrated into Communist circles, testified against defendants. They had been for long periods as the agents. Their testimony was a complete surprise.

Communists were as dark as to how many men were watching them the inside.

Testifying before a national committee on espionage, Hoover declared Communist party in this country was a fifth column organized from within the columns in Europe prior to war.

"Communism in reality is a political party," he said. "It is a way of life—an inhuman way of life. It is a condition akin to cancer, spreading like an epidemic, like an epidemic, quarantining necessary to keep it from spreading."

Hoover gave a warning to communism in America, made an appeal to Americans for alertness to the danger. In a 1958 book he wrote "Masters of Deceit."

Big Robbery Solved

The FBI also was connected with robberies of banks which there were Government insured funds, transportation stolen automobiles across state lines and other crimes that violated federal laws.

In 1933 the FBI announced that the $1,770,235.12 Erik's robbery in London had been solved after a six-year investigation. Eleven men were named by the FBI as participants. Of the loot, $1,218,211.25 was in cash—the largest cash haul in the nation's history.

In its crime laboratory, tiny scraps of evidence often were developed into irrefutable proof of guilt. But the FBI was interested also in clearing innocent persons, and its laboratory tests did that on numerous occasions.

There were some 150 million fingerprints in its files and the number increased daily. Police throughout the country sent fingerprints there for recording and for identification. Those in the civil identification section were used to identify bodies of unknown persons, victims of accidents and the like.

FBI, Hoover Synonymous

To the general public the FBI and J. Edgar Hoover were synonymous. It was he who, regarded as a hawk-ridden Government bureau to the nation's top law enforcement agencies. The road wasn't easy, and often it was plentiful. But each went to his scrap. So the FBI, the nation's top law enforcement agency, was synonymous with the FBI.

But whatever the criticism, Hoover seemed always to emerge unscathed. He served under five Presidents and a dozen Attorney Generals. Many awards went to him for his service.

That was the President, who, for his exceptional service to the Government, that President Dwight D. Eisenhower bestowed on him in 1955. The accompanying letter and his "brilliant leadership has contributed immeasurably to the preservation and strength of the Nation, its Constitution and laws."

President Harry S. Truman personally presented the Medal for Merit to Hoover. The citation with it said:

"Under his able leadership, the Federal Bureau of Investigation has not only become a powerful instrument of law enforcement in peacetime, but throughout the war years safeguarded the internal security of the United States, rendering invaluable espionage and preventing sabotage."

Turned Down Lucrative Offers

After the war, King George VI appointed Hoover an honorary Knight Commander of the civil division of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire. That was a recognition of his "outstanding contribution to the Allied victory in the field of intelligence and security."

In 1954 Attorney General Herbert Brownell Jr. awarded

Hoover a Certificate of Merit in recognition of his 30 years' service as FBI director. That same year, for "outstanding service to his country," he received the Cardinal Gibbons Medal from the National Alumni Association of the Catholic University of America.

Hoover was the recipient of many other awards—honorary degrees, gold medals, citations and plaques. The work of the FBI was the subject of a book, movie scenarios and radio programs.

There were offers of higher-paying positions, too. As FBI director Hoover's salary was $22,000 a year.

It was reported in 1951 that he had been offered the post of commissioner of baseball, which carried a $25,000 annual salary. Two years later he turned down an offer of $100,000 a year for 10 years to become head of the International Boxing Club. New York City invited him in 1955 to be police commissioner at $23,400. He declined.

When Hoover took charge of the FBI as director in 1935, it was a sickly, inept, politics-ridden agency. The agents couldn't carry weapons. Having no automobiles, they traveled by street car. Their chief arms were to catch when soldiers, automobile thieves who crossed state lines and violators of the anti-trust and bankruptcy laws.

He Revitalized Agency

Hoover took that unpromising outfit and made it into a model for law enforcement agencies not only in the United States but abroad. He created methods, systems and institutions which reformed and revitalized all forms of police work.

Political patronage was abolished. High standards for FBI agents were set up, both physical and educational. They had to be lawyers or accountants and were required to have ability and aggressiveness. They had to keep fit and keep their shooting eye sharpened through constant practice.

The director established the FBI National Academy for training selected law enforcement officers in scientific law enforcement. He constantly warned them against using third degree or other illegal methods of getting evidence. "The test tube is mightier than the rubber hose," he observed.

Hoover started from scratch and built up the valuable fingerprint file.

The National Crime Laboratory, another Hoover creation, worked much with scraps of evidence.

Increased Authority Given

The vast FBI had to be made more powerful. Hoover's department, for instance, had no jurisdiction in the United States. The fingerprint service as a clearing house for departments.

Hoover did not bring about overnight. For a decade after he became director, his agency could not fight the growing gangsters because of jurisdiction.

The Lindbergh baby, in 1932 brought down the Federal Government. It came a gang-buster. This was followed by many kidnappings. Congress passed a law called Lindbergh Law that gave the FBI jurisdiction in such cases.

After the Lindbergh case, Congress gave the FBI more authority. In 1934, it gave the agency to act as a bureau of national bank, all types of financial, transportation and other crimes of almost all.

Soon the FBI was a Federal law, as compared to what Hoover became director.

High Score for Convictions

In 1957, convictions investigated by the FBI, 10-year high—11,219, a number, 94.5 per cent guilty. Of accused persons, 95.7 per cent effected to go to trial, the conviction rate was 95.7 per cent.

John Edgar Hoover was born January 1, 1895, in Washington, D. C. His father was an attorney and his mother was a nurse. He was a one-time State Attorney General to the United States.

While attending a public school, Hoover joined a youth league and was a month messenger in a library of Congress. That was the start of his government career that was to last for many years.

All his life he liked to play a fly ball and was permanently recorded that nose.

He wanted to play football, but the coach wouldn't give him a tryout—he weighed around 100 pounds. Hoover then took up football and led his team to four championships.

Won Scholastic Honors

He also went in for training and became a member of cadets. His record was better than the average. He graduated as valedictorian of his class in 1915. His class called him "Speed" because he was so fast. He was liked to get things done. As a cadet he weighed 11 inches tall and weighed 110 pounds.

Hoover entered George Washington University, where he was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society and the Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity. He was an athlete.

It was in 1917 that he met with the Department of Justice.

Justice, a clerkship. His rise was rapid.

Within two years Attorney General Mitchell Palmer picked him to prosecute a large number of aliens seized in roundups of suspected subversives. He personally conducted Emma Goldman, the anarchist, to the ship when she and others were deported in 1919.

A reporter who watched him described the future FBI head as "that slender bundle of high-charged electric wire."

Origin of 'G-Man'

While working as a special attorney in the Justice Department, Hoover began signing his name J. Edgar instead of John E. That was to avoid confusion with a fellow employee.

In 1921 Hoover became assistant director of the FBI and on May 10, 1924, at the age of 29, was promoted to director. The bureau then had 637 employees. A quarter of a century later there were more than 14,000.

It was an underworld character, "Machine Gun" Kelly, one of the kidnapers of Charles Urschel, wealthy oil man, who gave the name "G-men" to FBI agents.

When an FBI agent cornered Kelly in his Memphis hideout, the gangster pleaded:

"Don't shoot, G-man."
"Don't shoot, what?" asked the agent.

"G-man, Government man," Kelly explained.

The name stuck.

Hoover Directed Big Cases

To Hoover, a major violation of a Federal law was a personal challenge. With high-strung energy, he himself directed most big cases.

After the Lindbergh Law was enacted, he had the telephone company assign a number just for persons reporting kidnappings. The number could be called collect from anywhere in the country. Hoover usually answered the phone himself. He had one next to his bed.

There was much praise for Hoover's accomplishments, but the record showed some criticism, too.

Senator Kenneth D. McKellar (D-Tenn.) was a severe critic at one time. He called the FBI director a swivel chair detective who left it to his men to make arrests and risk their lives. He was particularly caustic at a Congressional committee hearing in 1936. It was brought out that Hoover had never made an arrest personally.

At the time an airplane was warming up to take Hoover to New Orleans, where Alvin Karpis, kidnaper and desperado, had been located, Karpis had been writing needing letters to the FBI chief, threatening to go to his office and shoot him.

Personally Grabbed Karpis

Hoover and several agents posted themselves in front of the house where they had learned Karpis was staying to wait for him. When the gangster finally came out, a group of children were playing on the street.

Hoover took no chances of a gun battle that might harm the youngsters. He leaped from the car alone, ran to Karpis and grabbed him. The criminal was taken so completely by surprise that he didn't have time to draw his pistol.

Nobody ever questioned Hoover's courage after that.

The Karpis arrest had its amusing side. Hoover turned to his agents as they closed in and asked for handcuffs. No one had thought to bring any. They had to use their neckties to tie the criminal's hands.

Hoover personally led many other raids. One of these was in New York in 1936 when Harry Brunette, a bank robber and kidnaper, was captured after a frenzied 45-minute gun battle in a New York apartment.

New York Police Commissioner Lewis J. Valentine accused the government men of adopting a "melodramatic" procedure in making what he considered a routine arrest.

Friction Turned to Cooperation

For a time there were conflicts between the FBI men and police departments, but eventually they were smoothed out and complete harmony existed.

In 1929, Louis (Lepke) Buchalter, one-time overlord of a criminal syndicate called "Murder, Inc.," surrendered in New York to Hoover. Walter Winchell, columnist and commentator, acted as mediator.

Winchell, told in an anonymous telephone call that the racketeer would give himself up to "someone he can trust," gave a promise of safe delivery during his radio program. Hoover went alone to meet the gangster and arrest him. Lepke subsequently was electrocuted.

Senator McKellar became an admirer of the man he once chastised. In 1943 he appeared unexpectedly at graduation exercises of one of the FBI National Academy classes and made a little speech. Hoover, he said, was "one of the strongest and ablest men in the country." He added that the head G-man was doing a work in this war and has done work before this war which has been exceeded by none.

Congress thought so highly of the FBI's work that it seldom put a penny from the appropriations Hoover sought.

Hoover the Man

For recreation, Hoover went to night clubs and sports events, particularly championship prize fights and horse racing. He liked to play tennis. He took long brisk walks and setting up exercises to keep in trim. He did not drink.

Hoover's drinking was of the social kind and he limited his smoking to one after-dinner cigar.

There was a deep religious streak in his makeup. He frequently attended Presbyterian services. As a boy, he sang in a Lutheran Church choir and later taught a Sunday school class. He was planning to be a minister.

Sometimes his speeches had a religious flavor. In an address in 1942 he said:

"I am sure that if more emphasis were placed on the gospel of salvation and less on social justice, the latter would become a greater reality. What we need is a return to God, more specifically a return to the practice of religion. That is without doubt, the greatest need in America today."

Had Religious Home

He was reared in a religious home, where grace was said before every meal and Bible-reading was a regular custom.

"We didn't have much—but we had everything we needed," he recalled. "I always had to go to Sunday School. I was given a little Testament for attendance on 52 consecutive Sundays, and it was one of my treasures. I still have it."

He was a Mason, both Royal Arch and Scottish Rite, 33rd degree, and a Shriner.

Hoover rarely stepped into the limelight, but when he did he was outspoken—particularly in cases where he thought there had been a slur against the FBI.

His speeches cracked with outbursts against Communists and Fascists; "pseudo-liberals"; parents who failed their children; "cock sisters"; and "moo-cow" sentimentalists who pampered criminals; lawbreakers; and "midget politicians."

Administrations came and went, but Hoover stayed on. He held the all-time record for tenure as head of a Federal agency.

When the Sacred Cow Speaks

Heroes rise and fall in our land. Republican gazettes which once treated Ike as if he were above criticism now talk as if he were Harry Truman. There are also moments when Mickey Mantle is booed. But while most mortal men find their hides vulnerable, FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover remains the sacred cow of press and politics.

His unique eminence has been dramatized anew since the publication of "Masters of Deceit," Hoover's version of "The Story of Communism in America and How to Fight It." Any lesser author might have been gravely damaged by the timing of the book's appearance. It was released at a moment when the U. S. Communist Party had sunk to its lowest level in three decades, when, for the first time since 1924, it no longer published a daily newspaper, and when the ranks of even the hard-core Muscovite fanatics were crumbling.

Clearly this was an inauspicious moment to launch a volume depicting the battered local Communists as a clear and present danger to the republic, and rehashing in primer form the ancient history of Communist intrigue in the U.S.A. which has been told so many times and in so much sprightlier form. (It is, for example, difficult to be awed by Hoover's descriptions of the propaganda prowess of the defunct Daily Worker, which perished while his words were on the presses.) Yet that is what Hoover has done, and the volume is being treated in most places as if it were the latest edition of the Book of Revelations.

From the front page of The Herald Tribune book section to the columns of The Saturday Review and the editorial page of The Daily News, there has been a chorus of wide-eyed acclamation reminiscent of the Russian book-pages in the days when Josef Stalin was a compulsory best-seller.

All this would not matter too much except for a parallel effort to defame any commentator who fails to give the appropriate salute to this tedious exercise.

Thus, while scholars like Walter Winchell award patriotic prizes to the H-T reviewer, George Sokolsky has devoted a full-scale essay to a critical assault on John Oakes of The Times. Mr. Oakes was uncharitable enough to point out that the Communist house had fallen in on author Hoover while he was at his typewriter; with quiet understatement Oakes remarked that there was "a slightly dated quality" about the book. (The only other daring review we have seen came from Leslie Hanscom in the World-Telegram and Sun who confessed with gay irreverence that reading so much old stuff bored him.)

No doubt there is a certain virtue in playing for small children the old record of the duplicities of U. S. communism; but this book is not being advertised on the children's list. Certainly there is dubious merit in reviving old nightmares for adults at a moment when the great Communist offensives of our time are taking place on the political and economic battlefields of Europe and Asia.

Certainly, too, it is disquieting that the man deemed America's foremost expert on communism should publish a tome that alternately minimizes and overstates records that have decimated the U. S. Communist movement, shaking the Communist world. Sadder still is the fact of a press which so generally feels the need of a headline of J. Edgar Hoover as an expert that all usual standards of critical judgment are abandoned.

Hoover Claims FBI Will Live Without Him

J. Edgar Hoover, who became head of the graft-ridden Federal Bureau of Investigation in 1894 at the age of 29 and almost single-handedly built it to its present prestige, says the FBI will run on its own momentum when he's no longer able to direct it.

Hoover, who's in perfect health and has no plans for retirement, answers the question about his possible successor thusly:

Every man now in the FBI has been selected and trained by FBI standards. Those near the top have been carefully moved up through the ranks. The present system of FBI operation is as much a part of them as is loyalty to their country. Therefore the FBI will run indefinitely, always under the leadership of men who believe implicitly in FBI precepts.

An article about "The Indestructible J. Edgar Hoover," his struggle to build the FBI, and what might happen when he can no longer lead it appears in Family Weekly with The Fort Worth Sunday.

A Letter from J. Edgar Hoover

Let's Not 'Over-Protect' Our Juvenile Offenders

Editor, Enquirer and News:

I have just read with a great deal of interest the outstanding editorial captioned "A New Policy On Juvenile Offenses" which appeared in the Jan. 26, 1958, issue of your newspaper. It has long been my view that parental neglect, coupled with unrealistic overprotection of juvenile offenders, constitutes the major factor underlying the critical problem of juvenile delinquency and crime which now confronts our Nation.

Far too many mothers and fathers today are parents in name only. These persons do not provide a real home for their children, nor do they truly take an interest in the moral education and character development of their youngsters. In the final analysis, parents such as these are a menace to their community. They not only jeopardize the life of a girl or boy who deserves the opportunity to develop into a responsible adult, but in effect they also constitute a threat to the decent citizens around them.

One very effective way to penetrate the shells of selfishness and disinterest which surround neglectful parents is to publish their names prominently when their youngsters commit violations of the law.

I also want to add my endorsement to your new policy of publishing the names of juvenile offenders when it is in the public interest to do so. There is a vast difference between juvenile delinquents and the teen-age hoodlums who have proved by their actions that they are a very real danger to the community.

Overprotected and categorical leniencies will not teach young terrorists to abide by the law or to respect the rights of others.

Juveniles who commit heinous offenses and those who are guilty of repeated crimes do not deserve to be called mere delinquents or to be shown all the special privileges which delinquents have come to expect. Certainly, as a matter of self-protection the public is entitled to know their identities. Perhaps if they are exposed to the spotlight of public scorn, these young criminals will adopt more acceptable codes of behavior.

As you so wisely have observed, a great error now lies in the failure to use restraints which might save boys and girls from making ever more serious mistakes until finally they wind up with long prison terms.

Director's new honor, received January 27, 1958, at White House, "President's Award for Distinguished Federal Civilian Service," has been added. Director stated in past he did not want short-form biographical sketch to run more than one page; therefore, we add only the highest honors he receives.

Mr. Hoover still member of National Court of Honor, Boy Scouts of America. At one time he was serving in three capacities for Boy Scouts. On November 16, 1956, by letter to Chief Scout Executive Arthur A. Schuck, Director declined to serve any longer as member on Committee on Public Relations. On December 6, 1956, memo was prepared furnishing Director with complete data on his Boy Scout affiliations. It was recommended when future communications were received from Boy Scouts, advising Director of re-election to an office or requesting some particular service, that each request be considered upon its own merits. Director agreed on this policy.

On July 29, 1957, Chief Scout Executive Arthur A. Schuck advised Director had again been elected as member at large of National Council. On August 5, 1957, Director declined honor because he would be unable to actively participate. On September 3, 1957, Lex R. Lucas sent Director latest nominations for Lifesaving and Meritorious Action Awards for Director's consideration as member of National Court of Honor. Letter handled in accord with established precedent with no request to Lucas to remove Director as member of National Court of Honor. As of this date, Director declined to serve further on Public Relations Committee and as member at large of National Council, but has retained honor of serving as member of National Court of Honor of Boy Scouts for time being, and honorary member, National Council.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH OF JOHN EDGAR HOOVER
DIRECTOR, FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION
UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

February 10, 1958

John Edgar Hoover was born January 1, 1895, in the District of Columbia. He was educated in the public schools of the District of Columbia and received Bachelor of Laws and Master of Laws degrees from The George Washington University. He holds honorary degrees from The George Washington University, Pennsylvania Military College, New York University, Kalamazoo College, Westminster College, Oklahoma Baptist University, Georgetown University, Drake University, University of the South, Notre Dame University, St. John's University Law School, Rutgers University, University of Arkansas, Holy Cross College, Seton Hall College, Marquette University and Pace College.

Mr. Hoover entered the Department of Justice in 1917, and in 1919 he was appointed Special Assistant to the Attorney General. From 1921 until 1924 he served as Assistant Director of the Bureau of Investigation and in May, 1924, he was named Director. He has been admitted to practice law before the bar of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, the United States Court of Claims and the United States Supreme Court.

Mr. Hoover is a Mason, both Royal Arch and Scottish Rite, 33^o, and a Shriner. He is a member of Kappa Alpha Fraternity; Omicron Delta Kappa; Delta Theta Phi; Alpha Phi Omega; and Zeta Sigma Pi. He is a member of many national and state-wide law enforcement associations. He is a trustee of The George Washington University and a member of the Board of Directors of the Boys' Clubs of America; member, National Court of Honor, and honorary member, National Council, Boy Scouts of America; Active Member of the Grand Council, Order of DeMolay.

On March 8, 1946, Mr. Hoover was presented the Medal of Merit by the President of the United States. On December 30, 1951, the Jewish War Veterans of the United States of America presented Mr. Hoover "The Gold Medal of Merit" citation for "outstanding service in safeguarding the security of the United States of America against Communist conspiracy and subversion." On May 22, 1953, Mr. Hoover was presented with the Distinguished Service Citation of the All-American Conference to Combat Communism "for absolutely vital service rendered to the United States of America and freedom everywhere in the world." On May 10, 1954, Honorable Herbert Brownell, Jr., then Attorney General of the United States, awarded Mr. Hoover a Certificate of Merit in recognition of his service as Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation for thirty years. On November 13, 1954, Mr. Hoover was awarded the Cardinal Gibbons Medal by the National Alumni Association of The Catholic University of America for outstanding service to his country. On May 27, 1955, President Eisenhower presented Mr. Hoover with the National Security Medal for his outstanding service in the field of intelligence relating to National Security. On January 27, 1958, President Eisenhower presented Mr. Hoover with the President's Award for Distinguished Federal Civilian Service.

New J. Edgar Hoover Book Set for March 10

AT long last, one of the great men of our country has set his vast experiences in print for the world to read!

On March 10, Henry Holt & Co., will publish "Masters of Deceit" authored by J. Edgar Hoover, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the man who has done more to fight communism in America than any other single person.

Tho he is a native Washingtonian, Mr. Hoover is not too well known to Capitol residents; that's his choice. For more than 30 years he has been so busy with the ever-increasing operations of his organization that there has been little time for social activity.

But those who do know J. Edgar, have found a humorous tho quiet friend; loyal to his beliefs as well as to his friends.

Now he has written a powerful and informative tome; a warning of the clear and present danger to our way of life. It is a first-hand account of American communism, from its beginning to the present, by a man more familiar with the complete story than any other American.

He names communists, what they claim; why communism draws many; why others break away.

He paints a picture of what life in this country would be under a regime, towards which thousands of misguided Americans are actually working now; vivid and shocking picture!

LETTER

Recently I found a letter dated July, 1922, written to the United States Attorney for the District of Columbia, from the Office of the Attorney General, re a salary increase for "Mr. J. E. Hoover."

In 1922 the Communist Party membership had reached 12,400, and the man who was dedicating his life's work to a fight against the then "teen-aged" menace was receiving an almost shocking salary — $3000.

The letter was a part of a concerted effort to have the salary of a valuable citizen increased;

"The next time you stop at the office I want to talk over with you the question of Mr. J. E. Hoover, a brother of Mr. George Hoover here in the Department (of Justice).

Mr. George Hoover would like to have his brother advanced from $3000 to $5000 per annum. This Holland (then an Assistant Attorney General) looked into very carefully and we find it cannot be done without absolutely disorganizing that division of this Department!"

Oh, the times; oh, the customs!

Q Dance

"SAVE March 26, for my dance," said hostess Perle Mesta the other day. "It may seem a long time off, and it may be mid-Lent, but I'm giving the party anyhow."

The dance will be at The Sulgrave Club because it will be too large a gathering for Mrs. Mesta's beautiful house "Les Ormes".

It will be in honor of Ruth Eisenhower, daughter of Dr. Milton Eisenhower, president of Johns Hopkins University, and a niece of President Eisenhower.

Ruth, whose father and uncle are both long-time friends of Perle Mesta, made her debut this season at a tea given by her father at their home in Baltimore.

This will be the second-generation party that Perle has given for an Eisenhower.

More than a score of years ago she entertained in her huge apartment at 1785 Massachusetts-av (now an office building and once known as The Mellon Apartment, because the late Secretary of the Treasury Andrew Mellon lived there) to mark the engagement of Milton and Helen Eakin, the late Mrs. Eisenhower.

LOOKING BACK

It wasn't so many years ago that Mrs. Mesta entertained at a dance for another young girl during her debut year: Margaret Truman who at the time was the White House Daughter.

The party was a gay, small dance given in the Herbert Hoover house on Sat, which Perle had leased for several years during the Truman Administration.

Next Sunday Mrs. Mesta will entertain at a huge luncheon, again in The Sulgrave Club, for such Democratic big-wigs as Adlai Stevenson and his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ives, who will be in town for Saturday night's $100-a-plate Democratic dinner-rally.

The Harry Trumans, with daughter Margaret and son-in-law, Clifton Daniels, will be on hand for the banquet, but will be off to New York and earlier engagements Sunday morning.

Dear Sir:

For inclusion in the fund to be paid to the designated beneficiary of any Special Agent of the FBI who has previously contributed to this fund and who dies from any cause except self-destruction while employed as a Special Agent, I am forwarding herewith (by CHECK - MONEY ORDER) the sum of $10, payable to the Assistant Director, Administrative Division, FBI, to be included in said fund. Payment will be made for death by self-destruction after the Agent has been a member of the fund for a continuous period of two years. It is understood and agreed that the sum tendered herewith is a voluntary, gratuitous contribution to said fund which I understand is to be administered in the following manner.

The Director of the FBI will appoint a committee which shall consider all matters pertaining to the acquisition, safe keeping and expending of said fund, which committee will recommend appropriate action to the Director in pertinent matters. The Assistant Director of the Administrative Division of the FBI shall receive all contributions and account for same to the Director. Upon the death of any Special Agent who is a member of said fund the appointed committee will consider the case and submit a recommendation to the Director as to its conclusions. Appropriate instructions will then be issued to the Assistant Director of the Administrative Division, directing him to pay to the designated beneficiary the sum of $10,000. The liability of the fund shall not under any circumstances exceed the amount of monies in the fund at the time any liability shall occur. MOMENTS TO REMEMBER

FBI Director Hoover Recalls Quiet Moment

Federal Bureau of Investigation Director J. Edgar Hoover has traveled to many exotic spots all over the world. But the moment he recalls most vividly about his travels is a moment alone in Southern California.

"Years ago, I found in Southern California a moment of peace when I felt that God was very near," Mr. Hoover said. "I stood upon the crest of a craggy bluff overlooking the Pacific Ocean.

"It was near dusk. A strong but gentle and cool breeze blew in from over the surging, powerful waters beating rhythmically at the base of the cliff below.

"I felt a tranquility of spirit and was reminded of the indomitable strength of America's people who, like these coastal cliffs, have by faith and determination held back the tides of subversion and criminality which threaten to wash away our freedoms.

"I have found this awesome sight to be truly ~~amazing~~ strengthening experience."

FBI's Hoover Gets U.S. Gold Medal Award

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16 (UP). —President Eisenhower today named FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover and four other government workers as the first recipients of the President's Gold Medal Award for "distinguished federal civilian service."

THE AWARD, authorized by Congress in 1954, but conferred for the first time this year, is the highest honor the government can bestow on career civilian employees.

The medals, to be presented at a White House ceremony Jan. 27, will also go to:

Loy W. Henderson, Deputy Undersecretary of State for Administration; Sterling B. Hendricks, chief chemist, Agriculture Department Research Laboratory for Mineral nutrition of plants; Roger W. Jones, assistant director for legislative reference of the Budget Bureau, and William B. McLean, technical director of the Naval Ordnance Test station.

Hoover, FBI director since 1924, received the award because his "brilliant leadership" has contributed immeasurably to the preservation and strength of the nation, its constitution and laws."

Mr. Sargent in Mr. Adler's office, Personnel, Department of Justice, called and advised that he has received a letter from the State Department listing names of Department employees who are being considered for decorations from a foreign country. Mr. Sargent did not know the substance of the decoration or type of award available. This foreign decoration under the law, according to Mr. Sargent, is available to former employees. On the list received by the Department from State were the names of the following former Bureau employees: Mr. Louis H. Nichols and Mr. George J. Starr. He stated that on this list they received from the State Department are the following present employees of the Bureau who are not eligible for the foreign decoration until they retire or leave the Government: Director, John Edgar Hoover; Mr. Clyde Tolson; Mr. Clark D. Anderson; Mr. Joseph B. Garcia; and Mr. Henry C. Johnson; and Mr. Howard P. Winter.

Mr. Sargent stated that before he answered the State Department letter he wanted to know if it was satisfactory to advise that department that Mr. Nichols and Mr. Starr are eligible to receive such foreign decoration. He pointed out that it is necessary for the State Department to submit a bill in Congress on the names of the persons who are eligible for such decoration and Congressional approval must be granted to make the applicants eligible to receive such an award.

Mr. Sargent stated that he was answering the letter today and would appreciate a prompt reply if it is satisfactory to furnish the State Department with the names of Mr. Nichols and Mr. Starr as being former employees of the Bureau.

By memo 12/27/57, Mr. Andretta of the Department forwarded a copy of a letter he wrote 12/27/57 to Secretary Dulles requesting the names of former Assistant to the Director L. B. Nichols and former Special Agent George J. Starr be included in a bill to authorize their acceptance of certain foreign decorations now in State Department custody.

Decorations conferred upon Federal employees by foreign Governments are held by the State Department until that Department is authorized by Act of Congress to deliver the decorations to the individual. The State Department usually holds the decorations until the individual retires from the service. A Presidential Directive requires the Secretary of State to prepare for submission to the Second Session of each alternate Congress an Omnibus Bill authorizing retired personnel to accept the decorations in question. Such a bill will be presented to the current session of Congress.

In addition to decorations for Mr. Nichols and Mr. Starr, the Department of State is also holding decorations for the Director, Mr. Tolson and Special Agents Clark D. Anderson, Joseph B. Garcia, Henry C. Johnson and Howard P. Winter.

Mr. Nichols, who just recently retired would receive the Cross of Taxiarchi of our Order of the Phoenix. Mr. Nichols was advised of this honor by letter from the Ambassador of Greece, 12/10/51, stating that upon recommendation of the Greek Embassy in Washington, D. C., King Paul I of Greece had conferred the decoration upon Mr. Nichols.

Starr retired 1/6/47. He had left the Bureau in 1942 for military service. While absent he served as an Assistant Military Attache in the American Legation at Tangier, France. For his services, Lieutenant Colonel Starr was awarded the grade Commander in the Order of Ouissam Alaouite. He was reinstated in the Bureau 5/2/46. Starr, after retiring from the Bureau, obtained employment in the State Department 3/27/47. On 8/13/56 he entered on duty with the Central Intelligence Agency. He remained there about 6 months, according to Fred Hall of CIA. His present activities are not known.

The Director's decoration is the Order of the Star of Roumania in the degree of Commander. This was awarded by the Roumanian Minister in Washington, D. C., in 1938 on behalf of the King of Roumania. The Director acknowledged the award at the time and transmitted the award to the State Department. State Department records further reflect the award to the Director of the rank of Commander of the Order of the Crown of Roumania in 1934.

Mr. Tolson in 1938 was awarded the Star of Roumania with the degree of Officer. He was notified of this by a Roumanian police official and the award was made on behalf of the King of Roumania and is presumably in the custody of the State Department.

The decorations of Special Agents Anderson and Garcia are the awards of Orden Del Merito Policiaco from the Cuban Government and were made in 1950. The Bureau had sent a training mission to Cuba composed of these two Agents in 1948 and they conducted courses in connection with a Cuban Police School and also acted as advisors to Cuban police officials. The graduation ceremonies were held at the police school in 1950. SA Anderson is now assigned at Havana; SA Garcia at Mexico City.

SA Henry C. Johnson is now assigned at Mexico City. He was assigned to the Office of the Legal Attache at Bogota, Colombia, during the SIS period. He was awarded the Colombia National Police Medal in 1946 at a ceremony held at the police school in Bogota. He had served as Police Liaison Agent.

SA Howard P. Winter, now assigned at WFO, was assigned as Civil Attache to the American Embassy at Port-au-Prince, Haiti, during his SIS service. In 1944 he was awarded the decoration of Chevalier in the Haitian National Order of Honor and Merit, from the Police Chief at Port-au-Prince.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I have just learned of the magnificent action taken by you with regard to the advanced royalties on the new book Masters of Deceit.

I, as a Bureau employee, would like to take this opportunity to thank you for making the five thousand dollar check available to the FBI Recreation Association. This, to me, is another indication of the great interest which you take in all Bureau employees. Your kindness and thoughtfulness, I know, will be appreciated by everyone in the Bureau.

May I just say on my part, thank you very much.

This memorandum is submitted to summarize the authority of the Director for taking action on the 37 super grade and executive pay positions allotted to the Bureau and to outline the mechanics of taking such action on them so far as concerns any interest of the Department therein.

Super Grade Positions

1. The Bureau's 37 super grade jobs are all authorized by the Federal Employees Pay Act of 1955 approved June 28, 1955, which specifically gives the Director authority to place 37 positions in grades 16, 17 and 18 of the General Schedule. In addition to these 37 super grades the Federal Executive Pay Act of 1956, approved July 31, 1956, sets the salaries of the positions of the Director at $21,000 ($22,000 so long as the office is held by the present incumbent), the Associate Director at $20,000, and Assistant to the Director at $19,000 (the latter position has had only one incumbent, Mr. Nichols, and the other Assistant to the Director, Mr. Boardman has occupied a GS 18 super grade position).

2. The Attorney General's Order No. 91-55 dated August 22, 1955, delegated to the Director authority to take final action on matters pertaining to the "employment, direction, and general administration of personnel in the FBI, except the authority to appoint, assign, promote and demote, compensate and classify and separate employees in the positions of Associate Director and Assistant Director." Failure to include the position of Assistant to the Director was simply an oversight according to informal advice from Jack Adler's office in the Department.

Under the restriction in this delegation actions concerning Assistant Director, Assistant to the Director and Associate Director must be cleared through the Attorney General (Mr. Rogers can do it whenever he is Acting Attorney General).

3. Mechanics for handling actions under the Delegation Order

REMOVED BY ASD On any super grade action not involving the position of Assistant Director, Assistant to the Director or Associate Director, the mechanics are routine and involve nothing more than is done in any lower grade promotion, no prior Department approval being

REMOVED BY ASD

B. On actions involving the positions of Assistant Director, Assistant to the Director and Associate Director which would include changing the incumbent or changing his grade to a higher or lower one in case he occupied a position where the salary was not fixed as under the Federal Executive Pay Act, prior approval of the Attorney General must first be secured. In September, 1956 the Director indicated that Mr. Tolson should informally handle such matters with Deputy Attorney General or would give the approval himself when he was Acting Attorney General. Mr. Tolson would then indicate on the memorandum that such approval had been obtained.

C. After getting the necessary approval of the Attorney General, the next step is to prepare the formal fanfold (i. e., journal) action in the Administrative Division. The Director must sign the fanfold. Then all copies of the fanfold must be carried to Personnel Chief Jack Adler in the Department and he must be advised that the Attorney General's approval had been obtained. Adler then handles the perforation of Andretta's name on the fanfold and returns the executed fanfold copies to the Bureau which then constitutes the official payroll documentation and makes the promotion legal.

The foregoing is submitted for your information.

President's Award For Distinguished Federal Civilian Service

Pursuant to the memorandum of October 15, 1957, addressed to heads of divisions, bureaus and offices, United States Attorneys and United States Marshals by Administrative Assistant Attorney General S. A. Andretta, I am hereby submitting the name of John Edgar Hoover as a candidate for the President's Award for Distinguished Federal Civilian Service as provided by Executive Order 10717. I believe the supporting justification and other documentation accompanying this nomination are more than adequate but if for any reason you desire additional material, I shall be pleased to promptly supply it on request.

I recommend that the Attorney General consider the nomination of Mr. Hoover to the President's Board. Should the Attorney General agree to submit this nomination I shall be pleased to supply sufficient additional copies of the attached justification material on request so that Mr. Andretta's office will have available a complete copy for each Board member as set forth in Mr. Andretta's memorandum of October 15, 1957.

Attached for your approval and transmittal to Deputy Attorney General William P. Rogers is a memorandum with supporting documents for the purpose of submitting the name of the Director as a candidate for nomination by the Attorney General as head of the Department of Justice to receive one of the first President's Awards for Distinguished Federal Civilian Service as provided for by Executive Order 10717. The material has been prepared in accordance with specifications outlined in Mr. Andretta's memorandum of October 15, 1957, and the deadline for submission is October 31, 1957.

The instructions require that the necessary information be submitted in six copies so that each member of the Board may have a copy to review. In accordance with your suggestion, we are now sending only one original to Mr. Rogers and one copy to Mr. Andretta but in the transmittal memorandum to Mr. Rogers we are advising him we will be pleased to supply sufficient additional copies to Mr. Andretta's office for each member of the Board should the Attorney General agree to make the nomination.

I am confident there can be no candidate who more fully meets the eligibility and merit requirements for this award than Mr. Hoover and I therefore urgently recommend your approval and transmittal of this material.

MEMORANDUM TO HEADS OF DIVISIONS, BUREAUS AND OFFICES, UNITED STATES
ATTORNEYS AND UNITED STATES MARSHALS

Subject: President's Award for Distinguished Federal Civilian Service

The President, by Executive Order 10,717, established the President's Award for Distinguished Federal Civilian Service. The Order also creates a Board of five members appointed by the President to advise him in the selection of persons to whom the award shall be made. The Honorable James P. Mitchell has been designated Chairman of the Board. The other four members are Dr. Alan T. Waterman, Director, National Science Foundation; Mr. Louis J. Hector, Member, Civil Aeronautics Board; Mr. William P. Rogers, Deputy Attorney General; and Mr. Percival Brundage, Director, Bureau of the Budget. The President designated Mr. Harris Ellsworth, Chairman of the Civil Service Commission, as Executive Secretary of the Board.

Attached are instructions for submitting nominations for this honorary Award which will recognize distinguished service by civilian officers and employees of the Federal Government. The Executive Order provides that not more than five awards shall be made in any one year. Nominations for the award are to be made personally by the heads of the departments and agencies. They represent the highest honor available to civilian career employees of the Federal Government.

Nominations are to be submitted to this office not later than October 31. I wish to stress the fact that no information is to be released on the nominations for the Award. After the President has made the Awards, the widest possible publicity will be given to the recipients of the Awards.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR SUBMITTING NOMINATIONS
FOR THE
PRESIDENT'S AWARD FOR DISTINGUISHED FEDERAL CIVILIAN SERVICE

Executive Order 10,717 dated June 27, 1957, establishes the President's Award for Distinguished Federal Civilian Service and provides that not more than 5 such Awards shall be made in any one year. The Order also created the President's Distinguished Civilian Service Awards Board. The Board is directed to review recommendations for the Award and decide which of them, if any, warrant presentation to the President for his consideration.

The Board has approved the following instructions for submitting nominations for the Award.

CRITERIA TO BE MET FOR NOMINATIONS

The Executive Order establishes these two criteria:

- "(a) The significance and importance of the contribution to the government and the public interest shall be so outstanding or exceptional that in the opinion of the Board, the officer or employee is deserving of greater public commendation and official recognition than that which can be accorded by the head of the department or agency in which he is employed."
- "(b) Awards shall be made only to civilian career officers or employees of the government, or to officers or employees whose Federal service, in the opinion of the Board, can be reasonably considered as career service."

In applying criteria (a) above, departments and agencies should consider that

1. The contribution is of such fundamental importance to the people of the United States that recognition from the highest representative of the people is obviously appropriate, or
2. The contribution consists of several highly exceptional achievements accomplished at various times in the employee's career and that, in total, deserve much higher recognition that can be given by a department or agency.

WHO SHALL MAKE THE NOMINATIONS

The Executive Order provides that the nominations shall be made personally by the head of the department or agency in which the proposed recipient of the Award is employed.

WHAT SHALL BE INCLUDED IN THE NOMINATIONS

1. Nominations shall contain a full justification in support of the recommendation based on the criteria cited above.
2. The record of the employee's contribution should include both tangible and intangible benefits.
3. There shall be included a statement describing any other awards received by the employee.
4. Identification of the employee's position along with a description of his duties and responsibilities and a brief outline of his Federal career should be included.
5. A proposed citation of approximately 300 words may be included for consideration if the Award is made.
6. The nomination, with all necessary information, shall be submitted in 6 copies so that each member of the Board may have a copy to review.

MEMORANDUM TO HEADS OF DIVISIONS, BUREAUS AND OFFICES, UNITED STATES
ATTORNEYS AND UNITED STATES MARSHALS

Subject: President's Award for Distinguished Federal Civilian Service

The President, by Executive Order 10,717, established the President's Award for Distinguished Federal Civilian Service. The Order also creates a Board of five members appointed by the President to advise him in the selection of persons to whom the award shall be made. The Honorable James P. Mitchell has been designated Chairman of the Board. The other four members are Dr. Alan T. Waterman, Director, National Science Foundation; Mr. Louis J. Hector, Member, Civil Aeronautics Board; Mr. William P. Rogers, Deputy Attorney General; and Mr. Percival Brundage, Director, Bureau of the Budget. The President designated Mr. Harris Ellsworth, Chairman of the Civil Service Commission, as Executive Secretary of the Board.

Attached are instructions for submitting nominations for this honorary Award which will recognize distinguished service by civilian officers and employees of the Federal Government. The Executive Order provides that not more than five awards shall be made in any one year. Nominations for the award are to be made personally by the heads of the departments and agencies. They represent the highest honor available to civilian career employees of the Federal Government.

Nominations are to be submitted to this office not later than October 31. I wish to stress the fact that no information is to be released on the nominations for the Award. After the President has made the Awards, the widest possible publicity will be given to the recipients of the Awards.

FOR THE
PRESIDENT'S AWARD FOR DISTINGUISHED FEDERAL CIVILIAN SERVICE

Executive Order 10,717 dated June 27, 1957, establishes the President's Award for Distinguished Federal Civilian Service and provides that not more than 5 such Awards shall be made in any one year. The Order also created the President's Distinguished Civilian Service Awards Board. The Board is directed to review recommendations for the Award and decide which of them, if any, warrant presentation to the President for his consideration.

The Board has approved the following instructions for submitting nominations for the Award.

CRITERIA TO BE MET FOR NOMINATIONS

The Executive Order establishes these two criteria:

- "(a) The significance and importance of the contribution to the government and the public interest shall be so outstanding or exceptional that in the opinion of the Board, the officer or employee is deserving of greater public commendation and official recognition than that which can be accorded by the head of the department or agency in which he is employed."
- "(b) Awards shall be made only to civilian career officers or employees of the government, or to officers or employees whose Federal service, in the opinion of the Board, can be reasonably considered as career service."

In applying criteria (a) above, departments and agencies should consider that

1. The contribution is of such fundamental importance to the people of the United States that recognition from the highest representative of the people is obviously appropriate, or
2. The contribution consists of several highly exceptional achievements accomplished at various times in the employee's career and that, in total, deserve much higher recognition that can be given by a department or agency.

WHO SHALL MAKE THE NOMINATIONS

The Executive Order provides that the nominations shall be made personally by the head of the department or agency in which the proposed recipient of the Award is employed.

WHAT SHALL BE INCLUDED IN THE NOMINATIONS

1. Nominations shall contain a full justification in support of the recommendation based on the criteria cited above.
2. The record of the employee's contribution should include both tangible and intangible benefits.
3. There shall be included a statement describing any other awards received by the employee.
4. Identification of the employee's position along with a description of his duties and responsibilities and a brief outline of his Federal career should be included.
5. A proposed citation of approximately 300 words may be included for consideration if the Award is made.
6. The nomination, with all necessary information, shall be submitted in 6 copies so that each member of the Board may have a copy to review.

NOTE: Departments and agencies are in no way restrained from making Awards themselves to any employees who are being nominated for the President's Award.

WHEN SHALL THE NOMINATIONS BE MADE

1. To be considered for the Award this year, nominations must be received by the Board no later than November 8, 1957.
2. In 1958 and thereafter, nominations must be received by the Board no later than October 1.

WHERE SHALL THE NOMINATIONS BE SENT

Nominations are to be submitted to not later than October 31, 1957, in order that recommendation of the Attorney General may be prepared and forwarded to the Board of Selection by November 8th.

DEPARTMENTAL CIRCULAR NO. 948

TO HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS AND AGENCIES

ATTENTION: Directors of Personnel

SUBJECT: Purchase of pamphlet, "First Annual President's Awards for Distinguished Federal Civilian Service"

The Commission is publishing an attractive brochure concerning the new President's Awards for Distinguished Federal Civilian Service.

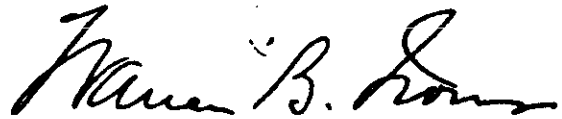

A color reproduction of the Presidential medal will be featured on the cover of the 12-page, 4" x 8" publication, and it will contain (1) a brief statement about the new President's Award, (2) the text of the President's memorandum of January 16, 1958, to heads of Executive departments and agencies, and (3) a page on each of the first five awards, featuring a presentation picture and the individual citation.

Agencies may find the publication useful in several ways. Since it reflects the highest recognition to Federal personnel in the fields of science, law enforcement, and diplomacy, it can be used as an Incentive-Awards Program promotion piece for distribution to all employees. It might also be used for reference by key officials in their community relations or public relations activities, and it can be used in various ways in connection with the year-long observance of the 75th Anniversary of the Civil Service Act.

The Commission plans to distribute copies to representatives of national employee organizations and professional organizations, editors of key newspapers, magazines, and special publications, college officials, and representatives of local committees for observance of the 75th Anniversary of the Civil Service Act.

The Commission will not maintain stocks to fill agency requests either in Washington, D. C., or in the field. The purpose of this circular is to invite agencies to purchase copies by riding the Commission's printing requisition No. 402. The estimated cost to agencies is $10.00 per thousand. Agencies may purchase copies in smaller lots, but the Government Printing Office will make a minimum charge of $1.00 for small orders. Agency requisitions (Standard Form 1) should be submitted to the Government Printing Office by May 23, 1958, by or through the office authorized to procure printing for the central office of the department or agency.

Warren B. Irons
Executive Director

Distribution: 10 copies to headquarters of agencies only.
3 copies to Commission regional offices.
1 copy to central office Bureau directors, division chiefs, and staff officials.

PROCLAMATION 3189

IMPOSING A QUOTA ON IMPORTS OF RYE, RYE FLOUR, AND RYE MEAL

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, pursuant to section 22 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act, as amended (7 U. S. C. 624), the Secretary of Agriculture advised me that there was reason to believe that rye, rye flour, and rye meal are practically certain to be imported into the United States after June 30, 1957, under such conditions and in such quantities as to render or tend to render ineffective, or materially interfere with, the price-support program undertaken by the Department of Agriculture with respect to rye pursuant to sections 301 and 401 of the Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended, or to reduce substantially the amount of products processed in the United States from domestic rye with respect to which such program of the Department of Agriculture is being undertaken; and

WHEREAS, on May 11, 1957, I caused the United States Tariff Commission to make an investigation under the said section 22 with respect to this matter; and

WHEREAS the said Tariff Commission has made such investigation and has reported to me its findings and recommendations made in connection therewith; and

WHEREAS, on the basis of the said investigation and report of the Tariff Commission, I find that rye, rye flour, and rye meal, in the aggregate, are practically certain to be imported into the United States after June 30, 1957, under such conditions and in such quantities as to interfere materially with and to tend to render ineffective the said price-support program with respect to rye, and to reduce substantially the amount of products processed in the United States from domestic rye with respect to which said price-support program is being undertaken; and

WHEREAS I find and declare that the imposition of the quantitative limitations hereinafter proclaimed is shown by such investigation of the Tariff Commission to be necessary in order that the entry, or withdrawal from warehouse, for consumption after June 30, 1957, of rye, rye flour, and rye meal will not render ineffective, or materially interfere with, the said price-support program:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, President of the United States of America, acting under and by virtue of the authority vested in me by the said section 22 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act, as amended, do hereby proclaim that—

(1) the total aggregate quantity of rye, rye flour, and rye meal which may be entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption in each of the 12-month periods beginning July 1 in 1957 and in 1958 shall not exceed 186,000,000 pounds, of which not more than 15,000 pounds may be in the form of rye flour or rye meal, which permissible total quantities I find and declare to be proportionately not less than 50 per centum of the total quantity of such rye, rye flour, and rye meal entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption during the representative period July 1, 1950, to June 30, 1953, inclusive, and

(2) during each such 12-month period, of the foregoing permissible total quantity, not more than 182,280,000 pounds shall be imported from Canada and not more than 3,720,000 pounds shall be imported from other foreign countries.

The provisions of this proclamation shall not apply to certified or registered seed rye for use for seeding and crop-improvement purposes, in bags tagged and sealed by an officially recognized seed-certifying agency of the country of production, if—

(a) the individual shipment amounts to 100 bushels (of 56 pounds each) or less, or

President's Award for Distinguished Federal Civilian Service

Attached for your approval and transmittal to Deputy Attorney General William P. Rogers is a memorandum with supporting documents for the purpose of submitting the name of the Director as a candidate for nomination by the Attorney General as head of the Department of Justice to receive one of the first President's Awards for Distinguished Federal Civilian Service as provided for by Executive Order 10717. The material has been prepared in accordance with specifications outlined in Mr. Andretta's memorandum of October 15, 1957, and the deadline for submission is October 31, 1957.

The instructions require that the necessary information be submitted in six copies so that each member of the Board may have a copy to review. In accordance with your suggestion, we are now sending only one original to Mr. Rogers and one copy to Mr. Andretta but in the transmittal memorandum to Mr. Rogers we are advising him we will be pleased to supply sufficient additional copies to Mr. Andretta's office for each member of the Board should the Attorney General agree to make the nomination.

I am confident there can be no candidate who more fully meets the eligibility and merit requirements for this award than Mr. Hoover and I therefore urgently recommend your approval and transmittal of this material.

President's Award For Distinguished Federal Civilian Service

Pursuant to the memorandum of October 15, 1957, addressed to heads of divisions, bureaus and offices, United States Attorneys and United States Marshals by Administrative Assistant Attorney General S. A. Andretta, I am hereby submitting the name of John Edgar Hoover as a candidate for the President's Award for Distinguished Federal Civilian Service as provided by Executive Order 10717. I believe the supporting justification and other documentation accompanying this nomination are more than adequate but if for any reason you desire additional material, I shall be pleased to promptly supply it on request.

I recommend that the Attorney General consider the nomination of Mr. Hoover to the President's Board. Should the Attorney General agree to submit this nomination I shall be pleased to supply sufficient additional copies of the attached justification material on request so that Mr. Andretta's office will have available a complete copy for each Board member as set forth in Mr. Andretta's memorandum of October 15, 1957.

I. PERTINENT IDENTIFICATION DATA

Attached as exhibits No. 1 and No. 2 are a current biographical sketch of Mr. Hoover and a verbatim copy of the write-up in the 1956-57 edition of "Who's Who" to be found on page 1228.

II. JUSTIFICATION IN SUPPORT OF RECOMMENDATION FOR AWARD

- A. Mr. Hoover meets the first eligibility criterion of being a civilian career officer of the Federal Government. His more than forty years of uninterrupted service in one department, including more than thirty-three uninterrupted years in his present position, constitute a record which speaks for itself.
- B. Mr. Hoover meets the second eligibility criterion in that the significance and importance of his contribution to the Government and the public interest deserve greater public commendation and official recognition than that which can be accorded under existing laws and regulations by the Attorney General as head of the Department of Justice.
 - 1. Mr. Hoover's career is a living chapter of American history. Its present value is beyond calculation in terms of what his contributions have already meant to preserving, strengthening and perpetuating the United States as a nation, its Constitution and laws, its cherished freedoms, its reverence for the home and family; the welfare, peace of mind and essential security of every patriotic law-abiding man, woman and child; as well as the position of respect and authority of this Nation in the international family. Its future value seems assured of progressively increasing, not only through his continuing service but equally because he has laid such a firm foundation in the organization he directs, and because the influence of his vision, example, cooperative service and educational programs have made American law enforcement an honorable profession truly worthy of an elevated public opinion.
 - 2. Mr. Hoover's worth transcends any single department. It is not measurable by normal Government standards. He has given his life to the whole Nation as servant and trustee; thus, it is only fitting and proper that the people should honor him through an award presented by their elected leader.

On May 27, 1955, President Eisenhower presented the National Security Medal to Mr. Hoover and made the following personal remarks:

"Mr. Hoover, your dedication and devotion to public service are so long and so well known, your accomplishments in that service are so great and so well known, that it seems idle for me to try to say anything that could add to the dignity of this ceremony.

"Perhaps it is just best for me to say I am proud to be an agent for our people in conferring upon you this highest award that the Government has, and to say that your real reward - as all of us here know - is in the hearts, the thanks and the gratitude of our entire nation."

(See Exhibit No. 3)

Evidence of Mr. Hoover's recognition by almost every worthwhile segment of our Nation is amply demonstrated by the fact that he has been awarded seventeen honorary degrees by as many colleges and universities (see Exhibit No. 4); he has received a great number of significant honorary awards in the form of medals, citations, plaques, decorations and related distinctions, many being the initial award of its kind. (See Exhibit 5.) These include awards from many foreign countries and represent a broad cross-section of national, local, private and civic groups - all devoted to meritorious causes in the field of law enforcement, humanitarian endeavor, distinguished citizenship, science, public welfare, youth activities, character building, Americanism, security, counter-subversion, national and world freedom, justice, personal integrity, moral and spiritual advancement.

3. There has never been a scandal involving the Federal Bureau of Investigation under Mr. Hoover's leadership - quite a contrast to the politics-plagued and scandal-scarred Bureau of Investigation when he assumed command. Mr. Hoover's name has never been touched by personal scandal.
4. As Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation for more than thirty-three years, under five Presidents and eleven Attorneys General, Mr. Hoover has compiled an outstanding record which sets an example of superlative management in a field touching deeply into civil rights and liberties, human conduct and welfare, national and international, as well as group and individual security.

- a. He has constantly made merit and ability the basis for entering the organization and advancing within it. He has imposed the highest personnel standards worthy of such a sacred trust. Through performance by him and his staff characterized by dedicated service; results rather than promises and intention; facts rather than impulse, instinct or rumor; through logic, science and persistent effort rather than brawn; respect rather than fear; - the FBI has earned a position of public esteem unparalleled in its field.
- b. His leadership has been a vital force in successfully bringing this country through such critical periods as the gangster era in the early 1930's; the pre-World War II preparedness years; the period of World War II on the home front as well as the intelligence threats in certain foreign areas; the post-war adjustment, sprinkled with wartime frauds, new gangster threats, the Cold War and the menace of Communism and other subversion; and the Korean emergency. He is now giving the same concentrated devotion to such current problems as civil rights and liberties; ramifications of the atomic era; and the continuing, ever-active, rapidly shifting subversive picture.
- c. Tangible proof of Mr. Hoover's stewardship for the taxpayers is found in the recorded appropriations hearings before Congress. From 1924 through fiscal year 1957, ending June 30, 1957, the cost of operating the FBI as represented by direct Congressional appropriations amounted to $1,041,524,817, whereas fines, savings, recoveries, and monetary claims adjusted in favor of the Government, have totaled $1,474,961,131. In other words, the FBI balance sheet shows a net profit of $433,436,314 or 41.62% in excess of the cost of appropriations. The "Congressional Record" contains many gratuitous remarks by members of Congress attesting to their faith and confidence in Mr. Hoover as an individual and the organization for which he is responsible.

Mr. Hoover's management genius has established a system of planning, self inspections, and personnel training designed to assure maximum economy of operations and the fullest utilization of manpower; thus guaranteeing the greatest possible return to the taxpayer for every dollar expended.

III. PROPOSED CITATION

Included in this material as Exhibit No. 6 is a proposed citation to accompany the President's Award for Distinguished Federal Civilian Service to John Edgar Hoover.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH OF JOHN EDGAR HOOVER

Pertinent Information Concerning National Security Medal
Presented to John Edgar Hoover, Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation, United States Department of Justice
By President Dwight D. Eisenhower on May 27, 1955

The presentation ceremony was held at the White House and attended by members of the President's cabinet. William P. Rogers, Deputy Attorney General of the United States, read the citation accompanying the medal which is as follows:

"As Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation for 31 years, he has made an outstanding contribution to the national security of the United States. Exercising exceptional tact, perceptiveness, judgment, and brilliant leadership in a position of great responsibility, he has established the highest ideals of Federal law enforcement and has directed them to realization. His tireless efforts have brought to a new height of effectiveness the law enforcement machinery of the United States Government. Through his well-grounded and clearly defined concept of investigative procedures, reinforced by his recognized integrity and high personal prestige, he has won international recognition for the Federal law enforcement system of the United States.

DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER"

President Eisenhower's remarks at the ceremony:

"Mr. Hoover, your dedication and devotion to public service are so long and so well known, your accomplishments in that service are so great and so well known, that it seems idle for me to try to say anything that could add to the dignity of this ceremony.

"Perhaps it is just best for me to say I am proud to be an agent for our people in conferring upon you this highest award that the Government has, and to say that your real reward--as all of us know--is in the hearts, the thanks and the gratitude of our entire nation."

In accepting the award, Director Hoover stated:

"Thank you, Mr. President. I am deeply grateful for this honor which you have accorded me. I realize that it has been brought about through the dedicated accomplishments of the personnel and my associates in the Federal Bureau of Investigation, as well as by the magnificent support which you as president and which the Attorney General have afforded us over the years.

"It is a pleasure, indeed, to serve as one of your subordinates."

PROPOSED CITATION TO ACCOMPANY PRESIDENT'S AWARD FOR DISTINGUISHED FEDERAL CIVILIAN SERVICE TO JOHN EDGAR HOOVER

This President's Award for Distinguished Federal Civilian Service is presented to John Edgar Hoover, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, United States Department of Justice, on behalf of the people of the United States. Mr. Hoover's Federal career exemplifies outstanding and meritorious devotion to his country to a degree sufficient to bestow on him the privilege of proudly possessing this Award as a token of his country's appreciation.

During his distinguished career of more than forty years in the Department of Justice, of which more than the past thirty-three years have been as Director the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Mr. Hoover has demonstrated superlative personal leadership and managerial acumen in his position of high public trust and patriotic service. By personal example and precept and through the organization his leadership has fashioned, Mr. Hoover has contributed immeasurably to the preservation, strength and perpetuation of the United States as a Nation, its Constitution and laws, its cherished freedom, its reverence for the home and family; to the welfare, peace of mind and essential security of every law-abiding man, woman and child; as well as to the position of respect and authority of this Nation in the international family.

His efforts have elevated worthwhile American law enforcement to the stature of an honorable profession meriting a position of lofty public esteem and honor.

The firm foundation and stability which his genius has given to the Federal Bureau of Investigation as an institution unparalleled in the field of law enforcement provide for the future a substantial degree of assurance that his worthwhile accomplishments will perpetuate themselves and even broaden in scope.

Mr. Alden C. McCray
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. McCray:

Your memorandum dated July 18, 1957, has been received, and I want to express my thanks for your thoughtfulness in communicating to me Mr. Ralph Edwards' gracious invitation to be a guest of honor on his television program "This Is Your Life."

While I would personally consider it a great pleasure to accept this request, I must advise that it will not be possible for me to do so. I will be very grateful if you will convey to your father and Mr. Edwards my gratitude for their consideration and express to Mr. Edwards my congratulations on his fine program.

Sincerely yours,
J. Edgar Hoover

Since approximately 1952, Television Emcee Ralph Edwards has had a weekly broadcast on the National Broadcasting Company's television network entitled "This is Your Life." Each week an individual is brought to the broadcast on a suitable pretext and the individual's life is then portrayed on the broadcast. Interesting anecdotes of this person's life are set forth and close friends and associates appear in person. Ralph Edwards is personally known to the writer, although no close degree of association exists. The writer was introduced to Ralph Edwards in 1952 and again in the Summer of 1955 by the writer's father, Tom McCray, who is vice president of the National Broadcasting Company in Hollywood, California. Recently the writer was contacted by his father and Edwards for the purpose of ascertaining if it would be possible to have the Director appear as guest of honor on Edwards' television show. Edwards stated he would consider it a great honor and privilege if the Bureau would consider having the Director's illustrious career with the FBI portrayed in such a manner.

These gentlemen indicated that because of the Director's long association with the Bureau and the continued growth and achievement it has seen under Mr. Hoover's direction, the story of Mr. Hoover's life on a television show of this type would in effect be a story of the FBI. The effectiveness of a program of this type, according to Edwards, is to have the guest unaware that he is to be on the program or that his life is to be portrayed and every effort is made by Edwards and his company to keep the identity of the guest secret.

RECOMMENDATION:

I am in the position to handle this matter in the best interests of the Bureau and the Director, either by advising my father and Edwards that no further action should be taken or by advising them to contact an appropriate Bureau official regarding further information in this regard.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

To a question asked of fifty men and women at random, we received the following reply overwhelmingly: "I sure would!" The question: "Would you like to see John Edgar Hoover as our next President?"

Following are some excerpts of conversation among a group of friends:

"Does he know anything about politics?"

"He knows enough to keep politics out of a department that successfully protects us from internal and external enemies."

"The FBI is his baby and he may not wish to leave it."

"As Chief Executive he would still be in control, and probably be able to do it plenty of good."

"Suppose, for personal reasons, he chooses not to run?"

"In that event, we will turn project into a national demonstration of the affection and high esteem in which he is held by fellow citizens."

The very thought of your candidacy captures the imagination, and because of the intense public interest, it would be easy for promoters to enrich themselves in collecting funds, etc. We therefore, would like to turn entire project over to a friend of your personal choice.

Before writing the press and such men as Walter Winchell, would you please advise us the name and address of such a personal friend to whom the public may write to present their views?

We don't want to let this thing get out of hand and possibly cause criticism by having wrong people get into the act.

Sincerely yours,

X CITIZENS' COMMITTEE JOHN EDGAR HOOVER FOR PRESIDENT

EXP. PROC.

J. Edgar Hoover

IT IS ALMOST standard procedure for congressional committees to pare money requests made by federal agencies. Recently there was an exception. The House Appropriations Committee recommended that J. Edgar Hoover be granted the full $101,450,000 he said will be needed to operate the Federal Bureau of Investigation during the next fiscal year.

This was a fitting tribute to the executive who today marks his 33rd year as head of the FBI, and who, more so than any other individual, epitomizes sound, modern and efficient law enforcement.

During his long tenure Mr. Hoover has served under 11 attorneys general and five presidents. Under his high-principled genius, the FBI has emerged from an ineffective haven for political hacks to its present-day position of eminence in law enforcement. Over the decades the FBI's jurisdiction has tremendously expanded. The agency now conducts investigations in connection with more than 100 federal criminal statutes. Yet its over-all efficiency has improved steadily.

One of the FBI's outstanding contributions has been in helping to improve law enforcement at all levels of government. It conducts several thousand police training schools annually over the nation. Its crime laboratory and file of 144 million fingerprints are of basic value to all law enforcement agencies.

The FBI commands respect on many scores, an outstanding example of which is its record in enforcing the federal kidnaping statute. Since this law was passed in 1932, the FBI has handled 524 major kidnaping cases and has solved all but two, the Mattson case in 1936 and the Levine case which occurred in 1938.

Mr. Hoover's 33rd anniversary as head of the world's most respected law enforcement agency is a fitting time to pause in appreciation of him and the dedicated agents who have helped the FBI achieve its notable record of success.

Dear Sir:

For inclusion in the fund to be paid to the designated beneficiary of any Special Agent of the FBI who has previously contributed to this fund and who dies from any cause except self-destruction while employed as a Special Agent, I am forwarding herewith (by CHECK - MONEY ORDER) the sum of $10, payable to the Assistant Director, Administrative Division, FBI, to be included in said fund. Payment will be made for death by self-destruction after the Agent has been a member of the fund for a continuous period of two years. It is understood and agreed that the sum tendered herewith is a voluntary, gratuitous contribution to said fund which I understand is to be administered in the following manner.

The Director of the FBI will appoint a committee which shall consider all matters pertaining to the acquisition, safe keeping and expending of said fund, which committee will recommend appropriate action to the Director in pertinent matters. The Assistant Director of the Administrative Division of the FBI shall receive all contributions and account for same to the Director. Upon the death of any Special Agent who is a member of said fund the appointed committee will consider the case and submit a recommendation to the Director as to its conclusions. Appropriate instructions will then be issued to the Assistant Director of the Administrative Division, directing him to pay to the designated beneficiary the sum of $10,000. The liability of the fund shall not under any circumstances exceed the amount of monies in the fund at the time any liability shall occur. Bill Hutchinson called. May 10 will be the Director's 33rd anniversary. He would like to pose a series of questions which could be answered and which they would set up for a Sunday release and he would send out on Friday morning, May 10, over their wire.

I told Bill I would like to discuss the matter with the Director; that one problem which had occurred to me would be what we would do if the other wire services came along. Bill stated that they could submit their own questions. I told him this would be awkward but nevertheless, I would talk to the Director about it.

Since Bill has taken the initiative, I suggest that the Director agree to supply the answers to his questions with the understanding that if there are any questions we don't like we can make substitutions. I told Bill I would call back either today or tomorrow.

ASAC McCabe, New York, called to advise there were two articles in today's issue of the New York Journal American, one concerning the Director and the other concerning yourself. In Dorothy Gallagher's column, "Voice of Broadway," one paragraph is devoted to the following, "Eye Hoover for FBI Film." This paragraph goes on to state that Warner Brothers desires that the Director play himself in the forthcoming film based upon the book, "The FBI Story."

The second item is an article by E. V. ~~Durling~~ Durling entitled "Clyde Tolson--The Missouri Hawkshaw." This article reflects that the ~~Assistant~~ Director of the FBI has great talent as an investigator but also has an unusual inventive ability. The article reflects that you have invented a bottle cap and that you have been offered the sum of $1,000,000 for the patent rights.

McCabe is sending both articles to the Bureau.

Dear Mr. Simon:

I am indeed appreciative of the thoughtfulness prompting your letter of March 25, 1957, regarding the interest of artist Michael Alexander Werboff in painting my portrait.

While I do not have any plans along these lines at the present time, I will certainly keep his offer in mind.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

NOTE: As noted in Simon's letter, Werboff is one of the world's leading portrait artists and is an admirer of the Director.

PERSONAL

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Late last Friday, March 22, 1957, two of our Agents interviewed Michael Alexander Werboff regarding his knowledge of Boris Morros with whom Werboff has been acquainted since 1938.

Russia
 New York

Werboff is a Russian-born portrait painter who is listed on page 2911, Volume 26, of "Who's Who". He has completed portraits of King Gustav V of Sweden, King Alphonse XIII, King Carol II of Rumania, Harold S. Vanderbilt, Bernard Baruch, the Honorable Frank Murphy and others. He is represented in the Metropolitan Museum in New York City.

Director
 During the course of the interview Werboff stated that he has the greatest respect for you and that he would consider it an extreme honor to do a portrait of you. He stated that he would present this portrait as a token of his admiration for you. Werboff commented that if you are unable to come to New York for the required number of sittings, he would travel to Washington to do the painting.

Mr. Werboff was told that you would be informed of his expression as set forth above. No commitments, of any kind, of course, were made to him.

Dear Dr. Wells:

I wish to acknowledge your communication of December 10, advising me of my designation to receive a special George Washington Award at Valley Forge on February 22, 1957.

I was deeply touched by the action of the awards jury when your informal message was communicated to me last week, and I immediately set to work to readjust my schedule, which frankly impressed me as rather impossible at the time. I am now very happy to advise you that I have rearranged my commitments so that I can be with you on February 22.

I can assure you I feel highly honored that I was singled out to receive this award, and I shall do so on behalf of the organization which I have been so proud to head over the years.

With best wishes and kind regards,

Sincerely yours,

FREEDOMS FOUNDATION AT VALLEY FORGE

VALLEY FORGE, PENNSYLVANIA

December 10, 1956.

KENNETH D. WELLS
PRESIDENT

Honorable J. Edgar Hoover
Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington 25, D.C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

It is my privilege and honor to formally advise you of our selection by the distinguished 1956 awards jury, convened officially at Valley Forge from November 24th, to December 3rd.

In the eight years of Freedoms Foundation's vigorous life, our medals, cash awards, and awards to schools and colleges, have been made in every state. Never before have we considered presentation of a special George Washington Award. It is for the most outstanding individual contribution to Freedom during 1956, improving understanding of the American structure of freedom.

We are instructed by the awards jury to strike a special medal and plaque commemorating your works for land of God and freedom. A $1,000.00 cash award accompanies the medal. This is the largest single award Freedoms Foundation has ever given. You, Mr. Hoover, have been selected from a great number of eminent people to receive this high honor on the occasion of its first presentation. The awards jury, as do I, considers this award as the highest ranking of all citations in the history of eight years operations. There are personal comments of high approval I should like to add, but this is the official letter of presentation of Freedoms Foundation.

We intensely desire your presence at Valley Forge on Washington's Birthday, February 22nd, at twelve noon. The ceremonies will be short but include a fifteen-minute special period for your response to your award, as an address to the American public on any subject of your choice. This will be carried by all media through the length and breadth of our land.

I speak for a determined and eminent group of patriots who struggle mightily in this time of tyranny. It is in their behalf I proudly send this notification of Freedoms Foundation's highest honor to you.

Faithfully yours, 18 MAR 11 1957

SD UNION 5/11/56
FINAL EDITION

Fete Hoover, FBI Boss 32 Yrs.

WASHINGTON (AP) — J. Edgar Hoover reached his 32nd anniversary as FBI director. He marked the occasion with a warm word for the broad advancement of law enforcement in his time and a hopeful forecast that current civil rights difficulties in the South will be solved "in a responsible way."

He goes into his 33rd year holding the all-time record for tenure as head of a Federal agency. With the Justice Department since 1917, he has been the FBI boss under five Presidents and 11 attorneys general.

New 61 Hoover made no special event of yesterday's anniversary, but there was a stream of visitors to his office to shake hands and to see some of the huge collection of evidence, his favorite hobby, which came in from all parts of the country.

TEEN CARNATIONS

The 32-year-old FBI chief of the nation's largest law enforcement agency, 127 problems can be met and solved.

Talking to the press with a smile, Hoover said the FBI has started a series of seminars for improvement in law schools for local police officers in the southern states, using the bureau's most mature and experienced agents as instructors. He reported the response from chiefs of police and others has been "tremendous."

The schools, planned later for other parts of the country, are being set up to explain the Federal civil rights statutes, the areas of local and federal jurisdiction in this field, and according to Hoover, "to emphasize that the FBI didn't write the civil rights laws or hand down the school integration decision."

URGES MODERATION

"It's our job to enforce the laws of the land without prejudice," the FBI director said.

"If we ever started selecting which laws to enforce, and which to enforce, we would begin in Gestapo."

The original problems in this nation were not racial and color, but economic, the director said. "If problems can be met and solved."

Hoover said the outstanding things in his mind in looking back over his long FBI association were the "improvement in law enforcement, particularly at the local level, and the great growth of cooperative effort among police agencies at all levels of government."

JAMES A. CARLSON
FORMER INSPECTOR

Yesterday I saw Carlson, now Assistant Vice President of Westinghouse Airbrake Corporation, Pittsburgh. He stated he has just been selected to become Secretary of the company next Spring.

We discussed John O'Donnell's column of 11/2/55, concerning the Director and possibilities of his being nominated for the Presidency. Carlson is of the opinion that, if the Director would merely indicate an interest in nomination and assuming that Eisenhower will not run, the Director could sweep the country with a greater popular vote than Eisenhower, since more southern Democrats would vote for him than any other Republican at any time.

Carlson mentioned that he, as President of the Former Agents Chapter in Pittsburgh, will attend the National Convention of Former Agents in Detroit on 11/10 and 11/11/55, that he had heard the Director and Mr. Tolson might attend as the guest of Mr. Ford, that he hoped very much the Director could find time to appear even briefly before the group. He expects from 500 to 1,000 to be in attendance. Carlson stated he realized there were still some members of the group not acceptable to the Director, and for good reason, but that the vast majority are successful business and professional men, leaders in their communities and men of whom the Director can be proud. Carlson said these men are strong boosters of the Bureau and would consider it the best thing that could happen should the Director find time to attend the Convention and make even a brief statement.

	Blood Group	Rh
John Edgar Hoover	B	Positive
Helen W. Gandy	O	Negative
Edna Holmes	O	Positive
Frank C. Holloman	A	Positive

As a matter of interest, Group "B" is one of the rarer blood groups, comprising approximately 10% of the population. Group "O" is the largest group, or approximately 45%. The Group "A" individuals make up approximately 42% of the population. Approximately 87% of the population are Rh positive and 13% Rh negative.

Jack Adams called to advise that ~~Karl~~ Mundt had made the statement that Midwest political leaders have agreed they will accept ~~Len Hall~~ or the Director as Presidential nominee next year.

Jack asked two questions. One, what was the Director's reaction? I told him no comment. Secondly, he inquired whether the Director had ever disclaimed having political aspirations. Adams was told that some time ago a similar question came up and the Director stated that he would absolutely not make any comment on any aspect of the matter. I told Jack by way of background and for his own information that as he well knew, the Director was born and raised in the District of Columbia, had never voted, had gone down the middle of the road and never engaged in any partisan political activity. Jack stated he knew this and as a matter of fact, a year or so ago he rode down in the elevator with someone who mentioned having discussed the possibility of the Director's entering the Presidential race with the Director and the Director had replied to this individual that he "had not lost his mind yet." Jack stated this, of course, is not the type of thing one uses as it is not in good taste but he knows what the Director's feelings are.

Mundt Sees Hoover, Hall As G. O. P. '56 Nominees

By the Associated Press

Senator Mundt, Republican of South Dakota, mentioned FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover and Republican National Chairman Leonard Hall today as possible G. O. P. presidential nominees next year if President Eisenhower decides not to run.

Midwestern Republicans with whom he has talked have spoken favorably of both men, Senator Mundt said in an interview.

He said he is not expressing his own preference for any candidate at this time and declined to speculate on whether rather than former Gov. Thomas President Eisenhower will seek a E. Dewey second term.

Senator Mundt said he has found Vice President Nixon "receiving the most support" as the G. O. P. standard bearer next year in the event Mr. Eisenhower is not a candidate.

But he added that Senate Republican Leader Knowland of California, Mr. Hoover and Mr. Hall "also are showing considerable strength in the Midwest."

Senator Mundt said he had run into "a great deal" of talk about the possibility of Mr. Hoover as a nominee. He also said that persons mentioned a candidate from New York, they spoke of Mr. Hall

Mr. Hall, when asked about the Mundt interview, told a reporter:

"If you ask me a serious question I'll answer it. No one, including me, takes the mention of my name seriously. I hope this ends all such discussion, period."

At FBI headquarters, Mr. Hoover declined to comment.

Associates of the FBI director noted that Mr. Hoover, a native and life-long resident of the voteless District of Columbia, has never cast a vote in an election.

They said he has frequently made it clear that he has never had any inclination toward political activity.

Senator Mundt has been participating in the Senate Agriculture Committee's Midwestern "grass roots" hearing and he said Republicans will "have to come up with a farm program that is better" than the administration's present flexible price support system.

Dear Sir:

For inclusion in the fund to be paid to the designated beneficiary of any Special Agent of the FBI who has previously contributed to this fund and who dies from any cause except self-destruction while employed as a Special Agent, I am forwarding herewith (by CHECK - MONEY ORDER) the sum of $10, payable to the Assistant Director, Administrative Division, FBI, to be included in said fund. Payment will be made for death by self-destruction after the Agent has been a member of the fund for a continuous period of two years. It is understood and agreed that the sum tendered herewith is a voluntary, gratuitous contribution to said fund which I understand is to be administered in the following manner.

The Director of the FBI will appoint a committee which shall consider all matters pertaining to the acquisition, safe keeping and expending of said fund, which committee will recommend appropriate action to the Director in pertinent matters. The Assistant Director of the Administrative Division of the FBI shall receive all contributions and account for same to the Director. Upon the death of any Special Agent who is a member of said fund the appointed committee will consider the case and submit a recommendation to the Director as to its conclusions. Appropriate instructions will then be issued to the Assistant Director of the Administrative Division, directing him to pay to the designated beneficiary the sum of $10,000. The liability of the fund shall not under any circumstances exceed the amount of monies in the fund at the time any liability shall occur. Ely Culbertson, famous author and bridge expert, says:

"I enjoy The Roanoke Digest Condensed Books for their high scholarly quality but I particularly value them for a special reason. The Roanoke Digest Condensed Books provide a means for me to read the outstanding books that, busy as I am, I would otherwise miss."

Samuel Goldwyn, movie producer, writes

"The Reader's Digest Condensed Book series has been a great boon to everyone who has any interest in the best books. I have never ceased to marvel at the skillful editing which retains all the original flavor and quality of the books and yet leaves away only the non-essentials. That skill, combined with the carefully admirable choice of books to begin with, has resulted in a series which is a unique and splendid medium for reading to-day."

BRADFORD, PENNSYLVANIA, PD
FBI NATIONAL ACADEMY

Lieutenant Palazzetti, a member of the 55th Session, FBI National Academy, today inquired of Class Counselor Spencer E. Robb if Robb could find out if the Director would accept a Zippe lighter from the Zippe Company of Bradford, Pennsylvania, where Mrs. Palazzetti is employed. Palazzetti stated that one of the officials of the company had indicated that he would like to present the Director with one of the lighters. If the lighter could be presented it could be either a desk type or pocket type and it would be inscribed with either the Director's initials or the Director's name, as preferred. Bureau files contain nothing derogatory concerning the Zippe Manufacturing Co.

ACTION:

Mr. Palazzetti will be informed in keeping with the Director's desires.

Mr. Tolson:

I spent the afternoon of Washington's Birthday with Fletcher Knebel, assisting him in his two-part story on the Director for Look Magazine. Knebel's attitude generally is good. He told me that he talked to Frank Baughman and Baughman was helpful but that it was still obvious in Baughman's eyes he is as much a part of the Bureau as he ever was. He further stated that he talked to some other people around town, whom he did not enumerate and that he has seldom worked on a story such as this where there is such uniform agreement on the fineness of a man.

He told me that there were a couple of critical things that did come up. Somebody on the Hill told him that the FBI was 99.99% pure, but that there was one case wherein an employee of the Bureau who was related in some way to somebody on the Appropriations Committee had received a transfer which was favorable. I asked him for the names and told him that in line with our agreement, we would check the matter and let him know what the facts were. He stated he did not have the names; that he did not know that his source had the names. I told him that he ought to check back on it because certainly if it was something of interest he contemplated putting in the story he ought to have the true facts. He stated he would check back on it.

It was Phila. 28 - was Pittsburg 4th it was for Sen. Reed who interceded
I then cited the case of the Congressman who called on the Director about getting an Agent's transfer out of Philadelphia canceled. He asked me the name of the Congressman because he thought that it would give additional weight and he thought it would be a matter of interest. I told him that offhand I did not know; that I would check with the Director. This is the case wherein the Director declined to cancel the transfer and the Congressman threatened to get the Director's job and later the Attorney General told the Director that he was not certain that the Director wasn't wrong - that he should have fired the Agent.

A check has been made of our files. The incident has been used on numerous occasions in the past. There are two situations that we have located which could fit the bill, although we can find nothing in file regarding the AG's conversation with the Director. A memorandum is attached setting forth the two situations.

24 APR 4 1955
Briefly, one involved former Special Agent Horace W. Bowling. The file reflects that Congressman Bacharach of New Jersey and Sydney S. Mudd of Maryland interceded for him as did Senator O. E. Weller. Weller, however, on

Attachments
LBN:arm:om

Memo for Mr. Tolson from L. B. Nichols

January 5, 1926, wrote the Director expressing his deep appreciation for the transfer of Bowling from St. Louis to Norfolk, Virginia. The other case involved former Special Agent Charles P. Aita. Joseph R. Grundy of Pennsylvania interceded on his behalf. Aita's resignation was requested in 1924; however, the request for Aita's resignation was rescinded upon the intercession on the part of Joseph R. Grundy. Aita did resign on January 27, 1925; however, Congressman Henry W. Watson interceded for Aita and on March 20, 1925, he was reappointed and directed to report to New York City. On April 20, 1925, he reported to Detroit and in August of 1925, was transferred to Cincinnati. On September 29, 1925, Aita requested a transfer to Philadelphia and on October 3, 1925, the Director expressed his regret to Aita that he could not be transferred. Congressman Henry W. Watson then interceded. It appeared that Aita had gone to Philadelphia rather than return to Cincinnati. The Director explained the facts to Congressman Watson by letter October 19, 1925, and stated his willingness to accept Aita's resignation without prejudice if the resignation was received in a few days. It was submitted on October 27, 1925. Perhaps the Director can recall whether these cases are the ones that he has in mind, although I see no necessity of identifying the case to Knebel.

Knebel then told me that he had talked to one former Agent who had stated that some Agents get in trouble because after working day and night under tremendous pressure, their nerves are frayed and they are told to do something which they can't agree is the proper thing to do and they flare up. I told Knebel that this was ridiculous; that the Director had standing orders that if anyone at the Bureau had any reason or believed that a certain order should not be carried out, that before carrying out the order, they were to state their position; that I knew that there had never been a case wherein the Director had criticized an Agent merely because he spoke up and expressed his opinion. I told Knebel that the easiest way I knew of for an Agent to get in trouble with the Bureau would be to blindly carry out some instruction which he did not understand or which he was in possession of information which indicated the instruction should not be carried out without calling it to the attention of his superiors.

Knebel inquired as to the Director's family and whether he had any brothers and sisters living. I told him he had one sister living. He then stated that this must be Fred Robinette's mother; that he called Robinette who stated he would be glad to talk to him, but not before he got a clearance from the Director. I told Knebel I could see no point in his pursuing a family matter because, after all, there are degrees of closeness even in his own family, which he agreed was correct.

He is going to get up a list of questions which he will give us which will be used as a basis for a very brief interview with the Director. I told him to get up the questions; and if there are any that I cannot handle or cannot readily get the answers to these would then be given to the Director.

Get me see them. N.
He stated also he would like to see Mr. Tolson and would like to see Miss Gandy briefly. I told him this would be arranged, but that Mr. Tolson would be tied up for the balance of the week and that the Director's commitments were such that he certainly would not be available this week, February 21-25.

He stated one of the questions he wanted to ask the Director was about McCarthy because nothing is in the record except the Director's La Jolla comment. I told him that, quite frankly, I saw no point for the Director to inject himself into this matter at this late date and that I thought this was something we might as well skip. He did not answer one way or the other.

Jim Egan called me after he had seen Knebel last week. Jim did not particularly like Knebel. It seemed that he was trying to inquire into the Director's personal life. The three specific points that he raised with Egan were as follows:

(1) He raised the question of Melvin Purvis and other disgruntled Agents. Egan told Knebel that Purvis could not take it and that Purvis was inclined to sit in his office and send men out to do the work. Egan did not believe that Knebel had seen Purvis.

(2) Knebel inquired regarding Ginger Rogers and any other women in the Director's life. Egan told him that this was just so much bunk as far as he ever knew.

(3) Knebel raised the question of difficulties the Director has had with political parties. Egan told him so far as he knew there had been no difficulties since 1933 when there was a concentrated move to replace the Director.

It is nobody's business but mine maybe the reason I am still single is that I haven't had the nerve that Knebel has to show in asking the question. N.

Memo for Mr. Tolson from L. B. Nichols

Charlie Appel also saw Knebel. Charlie called me to advise that he got the impression that Knebel was trying to dig up human interest anecdotes on the Director and that his story would be the human side of the Director. Appel stated that Knebel was friendly in the discussion he had with him.

I am attaching a letter which Knebel sent me wherein he raises certain questions. He states that he would like to talk to the Director off-the-record and not use anything without approval. There are certain matters in the attached letter which I can handle. On the personal side, I will flatly tell him that the Director's personal life is his own, but that his official duties have been such that he has not been able to have even the personal pleasures of the average person. Knebel informed me on Friday that he was now ready to start working on his story and he would like to see the Director sometime the week of March 7th if convenient. Knebel does a daily column usually between 1 and 4 p.m. He would like to have a little notice if possible so that he could work his column into his schedule.

It is suggested that the Director see Knebel briefly in the next few days.

Respectfully,

1. I can't tell from papers attached what has been given Knebel & what hasn't.

2. I am absolutely opposed to giving matters of my personal life. At least anybody's business as long as I conduct myself properly & my actions don't adversely reflect upon the FBI.

3. I am not going to even see Knebel. I don't like being a laboratory specimen used for dissection.

Mr. Louis B. Nichols
Assistant to the Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation

Dear Lou:

Here are some of the things I'd like to discuss with Hoover when I get in to see him. The way I'd like to do it is just talk off-the-record, with the understanding that anything I wanted to quote, I'd ask him and get him to approve the quotes. Otherwise, we'd just be talking for background.

Politics, natch. I'd like to get a feeling of how he has worked with various presidents and attorneys general. For instance, I understand he now attends daily luncheons with Brownell and department heads. Isn't this a new thing. Also I'd like to know how he felt during the scandal days of the Harding administration. Of course he cleaned house as soon as he had the chance, but how did he operate in the meantime. Any insider of attempted bullduggery around him?

The Communist issue. How does he feel about the extra-curricular investigators, especially Joe McCarthy? What impelled him to testify in the Harry Dexter White case.

The liberal vs. Hoover issue. What does he think impells people to think he has tampered with our liberties when no one can cite a case where he actually has done so. I know what you and I think on this, but I'd like to hear him. Without regard to party, how does he classify his beliefs on the broad issues of the day. He speaks to the DAR and American Legion, for instance. Would he address the Association for the United Nations or other outfits dedicated to internationalism.

Personal stuff. The case for the bachelor. How come never married. Ever fall in love. Is it true he abhors formal dinner parties of the Cafritz and Mrs. Davies variety. Tastes in reading, music. ~~XXXXXX~~ Leisure time desires and hobbies, if any. How come he has enjoyed the night clubs and race tracks. Nothing wrong with either, but usually doesn't fit with a character marked by strict discipline and streak of evangelistic fervor. A little on the practical jokes he has played on folks.

2----Knebel

Also, Lou, I'd still like to see Tolson and Miss Gandy for 15 to 20 minutes each.

Don't bother about the research on leading FBI cases. I find here in our little library "The Story ~~Summary~~ of the FBI," by the editors of LOOK in 1947. It is a swell job, I think, and has about all I'd need on that score.

I would like to have the name of the politician who threatened to get Hoover's job before nightfall and then Stone told him he should have fired the agent involved.

Would also like about a dozen Hoover speeches of recent times, to read through for the flavor and some quotes.

That's all for now,

Sincerely,

Fletcher Knebel

QUESTIONS WHICH FLETCHER KNEBEL WOULD LIKE TO TAKE UP WITH THE DIRECTOR AS REFLECTED IN HIS LETTER OF FEBRUARY 24, 1955

1. Knebel states he would like to get a feeling of how the Director has worked with various Presidents and Attorneys General. He understands the Director now attends daily luncheons with the Attorney General and Department heads. Isn't this a new thing? He would like to know how the Director felt during the scandal days of the Harding Administration, and while the Director cleaned house as soon as he could, how did he operate in the meantime? Were there any incidents of shulduggery around him?

Suggested answer: The Director is in a nonpolicy-making position. It is his duty to carry out policy. It is the duty of the heads of Government to make policy.

As to Presidents, both before and during World War II, the Director had frequent contacts with FDR. After the war, the need did not exist; and while the Director's relationship with Truman was official and pleasant, the necessity of frequent contact did not arise.

As to Attorneys General, the Director's only position could be that the Attorney General is his superior and he respects him as such. Due to events, situations and the time, varying emphasis has been placed upon the FBI. I do not think it would be in good taste to express our real feelings on Tom Clark, for example, and some of the others.

With reference to the daily luncheons, Brownell is the first Attorney General to inaugurate the practice of having daily luncheons participated in by staff heads. Other Attorneys General have had staff conferences which the Director has always attended.

Regarding the scandal days of the Harding Administration, what Knebel is getting to here is something personal. I think the Director might very well relate the practice that in those days Agents said they were with the Government rather than the FBI. The Director can also reflect his own views of disgust at the situation as it existed and his determination to build up the Bureau on the basis of merit and ability.

ENCLOSURE

2. On the Communist issue, Knobel asked as to the Director's feelings about the extrajudicial investigators, especially McCarthy? What impelled the Director to testify in the Harry Dexter White case?

It is suggested that the Director take the traditional position he had had on the role of Congressional investigating how this is the only path in America that can accomplish certain functions, pointing out the need for corrective legislation, and the Director should refrain from making any comment on any individual Senator. If Knobel presses on the McCarthy issue, I think the Director's position should be that with reference to the censure and recent controversy, the Director as a matter of policy does not inject himself into such matters.

On the Harry Dexter White case, the Director, of course, declined to testify on two occasions and did testify only after garbled accounts were widely publicized which prompted the committee to finally insist on the Director's testimony at which time the matter was referred to the Attorney General.

3. The Liberal vs the Director issue and what does he think impells people to think he has tampered with our liberties when no one can cite a case where he actually has done so?

I think the Director's position here should be that he is at a loss to understand the basis for this issue; that some of our most effective support has come from the honest liberals. I think that a line of demarcation should be drawn between the honest liberal and the pseudo-liberal.

4. Without regard to Party, how does the Director classify his beliefs on the broad issues of the day. He speaks to the Daughters of the American Revolution and the American Legion, for example, would he address the Association for the United Nations?

The Director, of course, has not accepted invitations to make formal speeches since 1950. He has addressed varying types of groups ranging from the General Federation of Women's Clubs to the national convention of the B'nai B'rith. As to the Director's beliefs on the broad issues of the day, he does not inject himself into political matters. I think that this should be emphasized.

5. Knobel refers to the question of personal data - why the Director never married?

This, of course, is none of Knobel's business and should it come up, I think Knobel should be told that time, events, situations never permitted.

6. Is it true the Director abhors formal dinner parties?

The answer, of course, is that the Director cannot with any degree of certainty make commitments in advance. When he found it necessary to be canceling commitments many years ago, he stopped accepting invitations; that there are just not enough hours in the day and that even when he goes home at night, he takes work with him.

7. Tastes in reading, music, leisure time and hobbies, if any.

The position in this is obvious. The Director tries to keep abreast of current matters with an occasional wild west story. When he has time for hobbies, it is taking care of his home, garden, collection of bronzes and so forth.

8. Why does the Director enjoy night clubs and race tracks? While there is nothing wrong with this, it does not fit with a character marked by strict discipline and a streak of evangelistic fervor.

The answer to this is, of course, the Director enjoys the outdoors and gets pleasure out of going to an occasional race track. His visits to night clubs are quite infrequent; however, he can see more individuals in a short period of time when he goes to the Stork Club, for example, than he could if he deliberately set out to contact people.

9. Knobel observes that not one person in a thousand would say the FBI has not done a remarkable job but some people accuse the Director of channeling everything through his name and making his name and the FBI synonymous. Is this essential for high efficiency?

More again the answer is obvious. In a highly integrated organization such as the Bureau, everything must channel through a few funnels, and what Knobel neglected to raise in his question was what about the brickbats which the Director catches for the whole organization.

10. What about the future? Will the Director retire or does he want to keep on the job as long as he can?

I think this should be answered by the observation that no thought has been given to this. There is too much unfinished business at this point to even be entertaining such thoughts.

Dear Mr. Tolson:

Attached herewith is a memorandum concerning an allegation against the Director.

These insulting allegations are so rotten and completely unfounded that it is even unpleasant to handle them. I do feel, however, that you and Mr. Hoover should

I advised Agent Pond that under no circumstances

Reference attached letter from Los Angeles dated 3-18-55.
I called the Los Angeles Office this morning and in the absence of SAC Malone talked with ASAC Gearty and instructed that Mrs. be recontacted in an effort to obtain from her the identity of the girl referred to as Marilyn and the man named Kendall.

ASAC Gearty called back at 2:37 P.M. to advise that Mrs. had been recontacted. With reference to Kendall she advised that there apparently was a misunderstanding concerning him inasmuch as he is not the one who made the allegation concerning the Director. She identified Kendall as being Messmore Kendall, whom she knew in 1934 when the statement concerning the Director is said to have been made, to be the owner of the Capitol Theater Building located at about 1301 Broadway in New York City. At that time Kendall was approximately 72 years of age and lived in a pent house on the Capitol Theater Building. Mrs. said she attended several parties there and on one occasion someone there whom she cannot now identify made the alleged statement concerning the Director. She is certain, however, that the statement was not made by Kendall. She insisted that her memory in this connection was not good in view of the fact that the statement was made approximately 20 years ago and she also commented that she might well have had one or two too many drinks at the time.

Concerning the girl named Marilyn, Mrs. insisted that she could not recall her last name nor can she recall any shows or productions Marilyn was in though she believes she was an actress. She said she only lived with Marilyn one month but does not recall the address of the apartment which they shared. She was asked under what name she was living at that time and said she was using the name of with whom she had been living shortly prior to this time. She also does not know the present whereabouts of . Mrs. was questioned further but no information was elicited which would help to identify the person who made the alleged statement concerning the Director.

Mrs. [REDACTED] was firmly impressed with the maliciousness of such comments and seemed to be considerably perturbed over the statement which she had made. She commented that she was afraid her husband ([REDACTED]) might leave her because of the comments as he was opposed to anyone indulging in malicious rumors. She insisted that she would not discuss any such rumors or gossip further and expressed herself as being sincerely sorry for ever having made any comments of this type concerning the Director.

No further action with reference to this matter appears to be warranted at this time.

At 7:50 P.M., December 18, 1954, SAC C.E. Weeks telephonically requested that Mr. Nichols be advised that the Director should be called through telephone number I.D. 204 at Miami, Florida, instead of the number previously used - TT 204.

Weeks was sure that there would thus be no further difficulty in reaching the Director.

Inasmuch as the writer was unable to contact Mr. Nichols immediately the above information was furnished to Mr. J. J. McGuire.

In addition, the Bureau switchboard was requested to make the necessary corrections in its records, to place a note on Mr. Nichols' desk containing this information and to give him a message concerning the Director's telephone number when he calls in.

ACTION:

None, this is for your information. It is also suggested that this memorandum be routed to Mr. Nichols.

REFERENCE:

At 10:00 P.M. the telephone operator advised that a message re the Director's phone number at Miami had been given to Mr. Nichols.

Director, FBI

March 18, 1955

SAC, Los Angeles

PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL

Allegation Concerning the Director

On this date a memorandum was received from SA Wayne Y. Pond, the resident agent at Victorville, California, wherein he advised that on approximately February 9 last, [REDACTED] in charge of the Sheriff's Office substation at [REDACTED] was reported to his superior, [REDACTED] (NA), Sheriff of [REDACTED], as having been in an argument with an unknown individual at the Red Log Cocktail Lounge, during which [REDACTED] allegedly pulled his gun and threatened the individual with whom he was arguing. Subsequent investigation refuted the allegation that [REDACTED] had pulled the gun. However, it was learned that [REDACTED] had had several drinks and as a result Sheriff [REDACTED] transferred him from [REDACTED] to [REDACTED] effective March 15th.

On the evening of February 26, [REDACTED] and his wife, [REDACTED], visited with Special Agent and Mrs. WAYNE POND at their home, and according to SA POND, the only purpose of the visit was to ask SA POND to intercede with Sheriff [REDACTED] for cancellation of his transfer. SA POND advised [REDACTED] that he would have absolutely no part in such a thing. During the evening [REDACTED] stated that in 1934 she was living in New York City, during which time she became acquainted with numerous show people, including a beautiful blonde by the name of MARILYN (ph) (last name not recalled but begins with "M"). Mrs. [REDACTED] claimed to have lived with MARILYN for a short time in an apartment about 1½ blocks from Park Avenue. A short time later, Mrs. [REDACTED] was told by an elderly gentleman by the name of KENDALL (ph) (first name not recalled) that MARILYN had been the girl friend of and supported for seven years by J. EDGAR HOOVER. KENDALL claimed to be a close friend of Mr. HOOVER. Mrs. [REDACTED] stated that she receives a Christmas card each year from KENDALL but could furnish no helpful information in regard to his identity.

Agent POND told Mrs. [REDACTED] in no uncertain terms that her story was untrue. He stated that Mr. HOOVER's character and reputation have been attacked many times but are still unblemished. 561-310

Agent POND pointed out that Mrs. [REDACTED] has established a reputation as a heavy drinker and a nasty-mouthed person who has frequent quarrels with her husband. She often leaves home and "makes the rounds." SA POND stated, however, that Mrs. [REDACTED] was definitely not under the influence of liquor in his home on the evening in question. He pointed out that [REDACTED] has been most cooperative with him and with the Bureau while in the Sheriff's Office at [REDACTED], and he extended to Mr. and Mrs. [REDACTED] the usual courtesies of his home. He let them know, however, that Mrs. [REDACTED]'s remarks in regard to the Director were entirely unappreciated.

Re: [REDACTED]

I asked SA POND why this matter was not referred to me immediately after the event occurred in his home on February 26, and he stated that it did not occur to him that anything could be done about it because he felt he had dressed Mrs. [REDACTED] down in no uncertain terms and that it was probably not possible, on the basis of the meager information available, to identify KENDALL.

I told POND that I want to be advised immediately of anything that involves the good name of Mr. HOOVER and I will make the decisions as to what disposition will be made of the information.

J. Edgar Hoover

Recently while in Denver to lecture at an Intelligence Conference of the United States Air Force, William C. Sullivan visited the Denver Field Office.

It was of interest to Sullivan to learn that they are still talking about the Director's visit to Denver of some time ago (relative to the conference with President Eisenhower).

It seems that while in Denver the Director expressed himself as being strongly opposed to pomp, ceremony ostentation and general artificiality which so often characterizes the "high brass" of the armed services. The Director apparently made it evident that he did not care for it, not only in the armed services but wherever it is to be found.

This made a profound and lasting impression on the men of the Denver Office. They were delighted. They are still quoting among themselves some of the jesting and humorous remarks which the Director made on the subject. They commented on how friendly, democratic and unassuming his own attitude was--a decided contrast to the attitude of so many Generals, Admirals, etc. known to the Agents over a period of time. Apart from the official purpose of the Director's visit to Denver, it was very obvious to Sullivan that his visit to Denver did the men in that office a great deal of good. One Agent summed up well the attitude of all with this remark, overheard by Sullivan, "The Boss is welcome back here any day--even if he drops in on us without warning."

Who's to Follow Famous Hoover As FBI Head?

One of the most intriguing questions in Washington today is: Who can, or will, succeed J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, when he retires from service?

It has been the subject of much discussion ever since the early "new deal" days, when some politicians were out unsuccessfully to get Mr. Hoover's scalp.

Latest name to enter the discussions is that of Leland V. Boardman, who succeeded Daniel M. Ladd as head of investigations. Ladd previously had been considered as a successor.

Remain Anonymous

By choice, the few key men around Mr. Hoover are members of an organization known as Anonymity Anonymous. And since his appointment, Boardman very definitely has joined that group, pulling the soundproof walls of the bureau around him.

But because of his lectures and other law enforcement groups before his appointment, he is a better known FBI official. Before his advancement, Mr. Boardman was special agent in charge of the important New York City office, a title he held previously in Milwaukee, Cleveland, Seattle, Kansas City and Philadelphia.

President of Anonymity Anonymous is Clyde Tolson, who is in charge when Mr. Hoover is out of town. His title is associate director. He and Mr. Hoover became friends when they worked together on the arrest of Alvin Karpis, the gangster, in New Orleans in 1936.

Another Mentioned

Another prominently mentioned successor for Mr. Hoover is Lou Nichols, in charge of the bureau's records and communications. He's very close to Mr. Hoover, and if he can't produce from memory some scrap of information on the FBI which may be ten years old, he'll get it from his files in seconds.

Before Ladd's retirement, the trio of Tolson, Nichols, and Ladd were considered the top men in the bureau. Now Boardman is one.

Ladd's statement on the day of his retirement is typical of the devotion they all have for Mr. Hoover. Asked what he considered the most significant development in crime detection during the many years he had been in the bureau, his answer was:

"Why, Mr. Hoover's leadership in making law enforcement a respected profession and his development of scientific crime laboratory work, of course."
